PAST WEEK BRINGS ADVANTAGE TO ALLIES

BAKER'S REVIEW OF WAR SITUATION HAS ENCOURAGING TONE

On the West Front the Allies Made a Vital Gain and Developed a New and Important Strategy.

ITALIANS HAVE HELD BACK INVADERS

Washington, Nov. 27.—The week just closed has been one very favorable to the allies' arms," says the war department official communique issued today. "The success of the British offensive in the region of Cambrai and the steady resistance of the Italians in the face of the reported attacks of the Austro-German forces are two factors which may be considered as co-relative elements of one and the same movement.

"It is evident that the enemy took the offensive in Italy, hoping thereby to distract himself from the increasingly difficult position in which his forces find themselves in the west. The German higher command were apparently confident that in order to save Italy from invasion, such important contingents of French and British troops would be detached from the western front as to render any further allied offensives in this theater impossible. Though the French and British both have dispatched large contingents to Italy, this has in no way hampered the continuance of their offensive operations.

Waste of the Enemy.
"It is the waste of the enemy forces, the slow, yet relentless sapping of his man power by continued and sudden offensive thrusts, which must eventually result in the softening of his line in the west. This is the ultimate objective of the series of intensive offensives so successfully pursued by the allies during the past six months, and is even more important than the gain of terrain.

"The military situation is dominated by the spectacular success gained by the British in their thrust towards Cambrai. By adopting new tactical methods, by evolving a strategy daringly conceived and brilliantly executed, the British forces have been able to record a greater success when measured by captured terrain, than any hitherto achieved by either belligerent in the same space of time along the western front. While seemingly continuing his offensive engagements in Flanders by an intense artillery bombardment in the sector stretching from Ypres to the North sea, Field Marshal Haig was able to make successful plans for an offensive thrust between the Scarpe river and St. Quentin.

Surprise the Big Factor.
"The usual preliminary artillery preparation was dispensed with. The element of surprise so essential to victory played a large part in the successes gained. The British, by a preponderant numerical superiority in men and mobile material, by improvising the skillful tactical maneuvering of an unusual number of tanks and by co-ordinating with precision the deployment of cavalry made use of these arms to bear the brunt of the encounter. Infantry then was called upon to hold and coordinate the terrain gained. Thus the British were able to record a decided success with very great economy of munitions and slight casualties. Three successive German trenches in offensives on a front of six miles, astride the Cambrai-Bapaume canal were captured and the Scheldt canal in front of Cambrai was crossed.

"During the first day of the battle dull, dry weather greatly facilitated operations, which began at dawn on Nov. 20. Later had weather set in and torrential rains accompanied by blizzards of snow held up the attack. The capture of the village of Fontaine Notre Dame, two and three-quarter miles west of Cambrai, marks the present limit of the advance. The British forces while still pressing forward, are meeting with increased resistance. Severe fighting continues and we may expect desperate attempts on the part of the enemy not merely to prevent any further British advance, but to regain, if possible, some of the lost ground.

"Cambrai, the center of very important railroad and canal lines of communication now comes under the immediate fire of British field guns, while the large calibre high velocity and naval guns can readily search out the countryside for miles in the rear, harassing hostile parties and making operations for the enemy difficult. On a front extending approximately thirty-two miles, the attacking forces have penetrated various strong points. The number of prisoners enumerated hitherto is over ten thousand, which exceeds the total British casualties.

"While the battle for Cambrai has resulted in so rapid and sweeping an advantage for the British forces apparently without extensive preliminary preparation, it must not be forgotten that it was only made possible by the continued pounding of the German lines in Flanders. In the meantime the British have not ceased to keep the enemy busy in the Ypres salient and gains of terrain are noted to the southeast.

"Along the front held by the French forces, the latter have achieved spectacular success in the capture of some elements of enemy trenches and the taking of numerous prisoners. Lively artillery duels took place north of the Chemin des Dames and in the Verdun sector where, as for several weeks past, the enemy continued to bombard the French positions in Champagne.

Americans More Active.
"In the sector where our troops are training, increased artillery activity is noted. Small detachments, while on patrol duty, have gained some useful experience.

"The Italian armies now completing their reorganization, have been able to withstand the assaults of the numerous superior forces of the Austro-German divisions engaged against them. They have hitherto prevented the further invasion of the Italian plain. The enemy is continuing its efforts to break through. The line of the Piave has held firm. Along the lower Piave, where hostile forces gained a temporary foothold on the right bank of the river they driven off with great loss thus rendering the Italian positions more secure.

"Along the plateau of the Sette Comuni, heavy fighting is going on. The enemy has been successfully contained. In the mountain regions between the headwaters of the Brenta and the Piave defensive operations have been conducted, and the enemy has been unable to make any further progress. Strategic reserves, strengthened by allied contingents, have been constituted.

"The morale of the Italian forces

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. McGuaran, sr., who have given six of their nine sons to the war, lost one of the remaining three today in an automobile accident. Mr. McGuaran, sr., and two other men in the automobile were seriously injured when it collided with a street car. "It's God's will, but who would have thought that the boy back home would be the first to go," said Mrs. McGuaran, as she viewed the body of her son.

Summary of the Day's War News

(By The Associated Press.)

New German attempts to drive the British from their position in Bourlon wood and the high ground dominating the Cambrai region have failed. Gen. Byng's men have repulsed another enemy counter attack at the northeast corner of the wood. There was much severe fighting Monday around Moeuvres, west of the Bourlon salient, and in the salients of Fontaine Notre Dame, immediately east of the wood and toward Cambrai. German artillery has been active in the Ypres and Verdun sectors.

In Flanders the positions at Passchendaele, the northern portion of the Passchendaele-Ghelvelt ridge are being bombarded heavily by the enemy but Crown Prince Rupprecht, of Bavaria, has not attempted infantry attacks. On the right bank of the Meuse, where the French gained the first and second German defenses on a two mile front Sunday, German efforts to attack have been checked by French artillery while the enemy have been bombarding the new French positions. The activity of the big guns also have been violent in Belgium and north of Chemin des Dames.

French and British soldiers have reached the fighting zone north of the Venetian plain and are holding the invaders back against the invading Austro-German forces. Between the Brenta and the Piave the Italians are withstanding successfully massed enemy attacks. The invaders attempted to rush the defending lines on the left, in the center and on the right of the short front between the rivers but were crushed everywhere by the Italians.

British cavalry is now three and one-half miles west of Jerusalem and is closing in on the Turkish defenses from the southwest. The Turks are offering some resistance and are holding the Jerusalem-Jericho road to the north in strength. North of Jaffa British p

Yesterday's sales of anti-tuberculosis seals were 32,160, making the total up to the last mail last night, 47,760.

Last year's record to the same date was 89,000 but then the solicitation for the big sales had been started and was well on its way. The solicitation for the big sales begins today. It is believed that the seals will be "style" this year beyond any previous year.

So many have "TB" that it might be said to be the plague but so many have been arming the society for its suppression that it is armed with hundreds of thousands of bullets, each of which nails its "objective."

The society has been gradually enrolling on the bugs ever since the war began. There were a less number of cases of tuberculosis in Allen county last year per thousand of population than ever before.

But eternal vigilance is the price of success in this battle. Seals spell eternal vigilance.

The society has sent to the city drug stores this year a quantity of seals to be disposed of as far as there is a demand for them. The drug stores are in this way requested to sell what they can and return the balance. As soon as their supply is exhausted they are requested to phone headquarters for more. The society was compelled to send for 25,000 more this morning to keep pace with the increasing demand. It is the fashion to commit no package to the mails or to the express companies, that show no Christmas seals.

The society acknowledges the following purchases, including all in the amount of $2 and up:

GERMAN ATTACKS
ALL DRIVEN BACK

Byng's Men Are Still the
Winners in Greatest
Fight of Year.

British Army Headquarters in France, Monday, Nov. 26.—(By The Associated Press.)—British troops, including some from London, last night continued to bore their way forward through the Hindenburg support line west of Moeuvres. There was vigorous fighting at close quarters in this region and as a result the British today were in possession of a further section of support trenches 2,000 yards long running east and west just south of Pronville and Inchy-on-Artois. The British advance in the last few days had made this section of the line virtually untenable and the Germans were forced to withdraw when pressed by a new attack.

Fighting was renewed today between Bourlon wood and Cambrai about Fontaine Notre Dame, where the Germans were still installed and continued to work machine guns from roofs and windows. West of here at Bourlon wood Bourlon village the situation remained much as it was last night after the Germans had forced the British out of most of the village in a fierce counter-attack which involved still more furious hand-to-hand

BASEBALL WILL HELP TREASURY IN NEXT SEASON

New York, Nov. 27.—The federal war taxes on railroad fares will mean an average extra cost of $1.10, a season to each team in the major baseball leagues, according to estimates just compiled by John B. Foster, secretary of the New York National league club. The 16 travelling clubs will, therefore, enrich the national treasury to the extent of about $18,000 next season. The average mileage of each of the major league clubs is about 11,000 a season. Mr. Foster is of the opinion that the additional cost of baseball through taxation and the increased hotel expenses can be met by cutting the player limit to 18 or 20 players.

MUST MAKE A PEACE WE CAN KEEP SAYS COLONEL

Roosevelt Receives Great Ovation in Toronto at Big Meeting.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 27.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt received a tremendous ovation here last night when he spoke in support of Canada's victory loan. Thousands of Canadians waving Union Jacks and American flags filled the hall and when Colonel Roosevelt appeared on the platform the crowd arose and sang "The Star-Spangled Banner" and "God Save the King."

"Colonel Roosevelt," declared Sir Thomas White, the chairman, "has been of incalculable service in mobilizing the moral forces of the world against Germany and its iniquities. We welcome him as a statesman, a gallant soldier, as a humanitarian and, above all, as a man, for he is every inch a man."

Universal military training in time of peace was advocated by Colonel Roosevelt as the means of maintaining a permanent peace after the close of the world conflict.

RADICALS WILL NOT LONG RULE THE RUSS LAND

Gen. Kaledines and His Don Cossacks in Control and More Conservatives
Will Soon Have Upper Hand.

KALADINES HAS GOLD AND FOOD SUPPLY

London, Nov. 27.—The Russian revolutionists have made a "ghastly failure" of their attempt at administration according to the Petrograd correspondent of the Morning Post writing under date of Saturday. He adds: "But behind or beyond all this apparently hopeless chaos the forces which made Russia an empire are not idle and those who know Russian history understood perfectly how matters will end.

"Even as I write, the situation is becoming clear. The elections to the constituent assembly will take place but the constituent assembly will not meet with success for the Bolshevik movement, whatever that movement may really mean, already has damned the constituent assembly.

"Meantime I would call attention to the facts. The vast gold reserve of the Russian empire which was removed from Petrograd to the Kremlin in 1913, was later carried still further into the interior. It is in safe hands.

"General Kaledines, hetman of united Cossackdom, is in secure possession, with trustworthy and disciplined troops of all arms, of all those regions of European Russia that produced a harvest this year and is rapidly capturing these remaining territories upon which Russia relies for its daily bread.

"A vast union, under the name of the Southeastern union, has been formed. It includes the Don territory, a great part of Little Russia, the lower Volga provinces and Tauristan—the area which feeds all Russia. This union is extending and promises to cover the Siberia corn land.

"Gen. Kaledines, holding the gold reserve and the bread supply, is master of the situation and those he serves will accept dictation neither from Kerensky, Lenin nor anybody else, least of all from Germany.

"The allies may safely admit a bowing acquaintance with the curious individualities thrown up from the depths by internal disturbances, but for intimate friendship and future partnership they must look elsewhere and in the meantime they must wait unconcernedly until their old friends appear above the present turmoil."

NEW GOVERNMENT IN CAUCASUS

Washington, Nov. 27.—The American consul at Tiflis today reported establishment of the new government in the Caucasus as a protest against anarchy in Russia. His report contained few details, but indicated that the men in the new movement were of the conservative element and were determined to do what they could to hold back from their part of Russia the waves of disorder. The governing power has been placed in an assembly of thirty-six men.

No direct news comes from Petrograd today, but from Sweden reports were received that indicated cadets have manifested the sympathy for Gen. Kaledines. Conditions in Finland are reported threatened with new complications with the probable renewal of a general strike. The food shortage is becoming more acute.

No special instructions have been sent to Ambassador Daniels and it was indicated at the state department that acts in Petrograd would be governed largely by his own judgment and that even his departure from Petrograd, in case of emergency, would not be a question of instruction from Washington, but one by his own decision.

SMALL FIRE

The fire department was called to the residence of William Talmage, 121 East Pontiac street, shortly before 10 o'clock Monday night. Sparks from the chimney had ignited the roof, but the damage was slight, amounting to about $15.

every other company of American soldiers is expected to do under similar circumstances. The French general commanding the sector considers these men have earned war crosses, and I here deliver them and the citations.

"You must understand that you must not wear them, but must keep them in your possession until congress authorizes the wearing of them."

He then presented the company's citation and crosses to the lieutenant commanding. Next the three lieutenants stepped from their positions, saluted and received their individual crosses. The general congratulated each. Next the non-commissioned officers, in the position until the last night had been borne away across the valley by the wind. The regiment then marched back to the nearby town where it is believed will stay a little more than in every day.

The general first read the citation for the whole company, which was standing near the colors, breaches in the ranks showing where the men now prisoners in Germany or in hospitals had formerly stood. The general congratulated the company, saying:

"Occasions arising frequently in war, and will arise frequently again, when clear-headed coolness and courage are necessary. This company behaved on one occasion as it was expected to do, and as a little more than in every day."

RUSSIAN ARMY STARVING AND WILL DISBAND

London, Nov. 27.—The Russian army on the northern front has had no bread for several days, according to reports received in Petrograd and transmitted by the correspondent of the Daily Express, and only two or three days' supplies of army biscuits on hand. The army delegates are reported to have recommended the withdrawal of the troops in order to prevent a general flight with its consequent excesses. Instead of a hundred cars of food arriving daily at the Divinsk front only twenty have been received. Large numbers of troops being moved to different places have been stopped by the removal of sections of railroad track to prevent their reaching Petrograd.

ORLANDO SOMERS IN PLEA FOR PATRIOTISM

National G. A. R. Commander
Speaks at Sion S. Bass
Post Celebration.

"We are either for this flag or against it, we are either loyal citizens or we are not; there is no middle ground," declared Orlando A. Somers, of Kokomo, national commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., in an address before Sion S. Bass post Monday evening.

Mr. Somers was the principal speaker at the thirty-sixth anniversary celebration of the Sion S. Bass post. Members of the Bass post and Lawton post, G. A. R., the Union Veteran legion, No. 51, of Fort Wayne; the Women's Relief corps and Daughters of Veterans, and other invited guests, filled the quarters to capacity.

The national leader of the G. A. R. was highly cheered as he entered the room and as he rose to speak. His address was one of the most thrilling and inspiring ever heard in this city. His plea was for united loyalty.

He first told of the civil war, eulogizing the names of Sion S. Bass and Henry W. Lawton, two Fort Wayne men, whose names, he said, would never die.

Continuing the speaker paid a remarkable tribute to the flag. As he held up a corner of the Stars and Stripes, which adorned the platform, he asked:

"Have you ever stopped to think what this cost? What the price was that made secure these thirteen stripes of red and white and the forty-eight stars in its field of blue? What the total would reach in men and money and prayers and tears and suffering? Is there any figure which will reach such a summing up? No, our flag is priceless. For every stripe of red and white and every star in its field of blue, thirty thousand men have laid down their lives. It is significant that all the nations of the world which have ceased to rever the soldier dead and living defenders have gone down. History is full of the wrecks of world power. Egypt, Assyria, Greece, Rome, all have come and gone, leaving upon the record of their rise and fall the nation which forgot the blood and tears, the sacrifices and suffering of the men who have sacrificed all in their country's defense, is found for disintegration and ruin.

"We are not in another war, a great war, and our nation is in need of a solid basis that it will endure and the nations of the world, the oppressed and the downtrodden, those who believe in freedom and righteousness, look with longing eyes at America. We are in this war to settle a question of government, to settle the question of the world, and it will not be settled until we have won. We must keep Columbia with all our might. There must be no shirkings or unavowed opinions. There is but one road we can take, my countrymen. If you are not wholeheartedly and unquestionably for the United States you are for her enemies. Our course is clear, to get behind our government in its fight and help with its battles. It is also our duty as veterans to keep alive the fires of patriotism just as we have done for over fifty years."

The national commander brought his address to a close with words of tribute to the Ladies of the G. A. R., Women's Relief corps and other auxiliary branches of the G. A. R. posts, for their co-operation and loyalty.

Talks were also made by Judge Samuel M. Heath, state department commander, and Colonel D. N. Foster, post state commander. Representatives of the various societies present gave short responses and then the program was closed with the singing of national songs.

Why Society Women Wash Their Own Hair

They do, not because it is a fad, but because they wish to obtain the greatest possible hair beauty and be sure they are not using anything harmful. They have found that in washing the hair it is never wise to use a makeshift but is always advisable to use a preparation made for shampooing only. Many of our friends say they get the best results from a simple home-made canthox mixture. You can use this at a cost about three cents a shampoo by getting some canthox from your druggist, and dissolving a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This makes enough shampoo liquid to apply to all the hair instead of just the top of the head, as with most preparations. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear in the rinsing water. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its lustre and softness will also delight you.—Advertisement.

PIONEER RESIDENT OF MONROEVILLE DEAD

J. E. Pillers, Former Miller and Business Man, Died at Home of Daughter.

Monroeville, Ind., Nov. 27.—J. E. Pillers, age 76, a civil war veteran, died Sunday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Smith Nelson, at Paulding, Ohio. He had been a continual sufferer from heart disease since the close of the war. Mr. Pillers was the first white child born in Madison township.

At the age of two his mother died and his father left him at the home of his grandfather, near Decatur, where he remained with his father until the outbreak of the civil war and he enlisted at Camp Allen in the Ninety-eighth regiment, Company G, Indiana volunteers, with Captain Hollister in charge. He took part in many engagements of the war and at its close went to the west, where he remained two years, and then returned to the home of his parents, near Leo, where later he was married to Henrietta Bachus. Seven children were born to this union—W. E. Pillers of Angola, L. H. Pillers, Thomas Pillers and Mrs. William E. Alliger of Monroeville, and Mrs. Smith Nelson of Paulding, Ohio. A son and a daughter died in infancy. There are also eleven grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, two half-brothers, William Pillers of near Hart, and James Pillers of Kalamazoo, Mich., and one half-sister, Mrs. Jane Matthews of Topeka, Kan., surviving.

After his marriage Mr. Pillers took charge of the old mill at Leo. Some time later he took charge of the old Redelsheimer mill at Monroeville. Later he opened a meat market in Decatur, but moved back to Monroeville after seven months, where he opened a meat market for several years. He remained in Monroeville ever since, and a few weeks ago to visit his daughter in Paulding where his death occurred. He was a member of the Methodist church and a G. A. R. and was a member of the I. O. O. F. for the last thirty-five years. Funeral services were held here Tuesday afternoon, with the son of his former captain, Rev. Charles Hollister, of near Hunkertown, officiating. The G. A. R. and I. O. O. F. organizations had charge of the funeral. Interment was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

TRYING TO MAKE BOYS IN CAMP DISCONTENTED

U. S. Searches for Source of Pro-German Tale of Christmas Furlough.

Special Dispatch from Our Washington Bureau.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—There will be no general Christmas furlough for the boys in the cantonments and training camps.
Parents and soldiers should adjust their Christmas plans on this basis.
A story, the source of which the war department has been unable to locate, has been widely circulated to the effect that the camps would be virtually vacated during the holidays.
The story said that both officers and men would be given general furlough over Christmas week.
It is believed this story is part of deliberate pro-German propaganda, circulated to boost hopes of both soldier boys and their relatives and friends, with the idea that discontent and dissatisfaction would follow when it developed there would be no Christmas furlough.

The war department will go the limit in attempting to make the Christmas holidays a bright period in training camp life.
Transportation is in itself a barrier to any general furlough plan, as railroads had the work of transporting men to the camps spread out over several weeks in order that the heavy traffic could be handled. To attempt to handle this soldier traffic two ways—from camp to home and back to camp—during the crowded Christmas week, would be impossible.
Then to attempt a general Christmas furlough would disrupt the entire schedule of training and of movements of troops to France for at least two weeks, at a time when every day is valuable.

On either of these counts the plan is called wholly impossible.
Commanders at the various camps, however, will have authority to grant the greatest possible freedom to the men during the holiday period to enjoy entertainment and Christmas festivities that may be offered by the communities near which the camps are located.
Soldiers whose homes are near the camps in which they are training may be granted leave at the discretion of the camp commanders.
Within the camps themselves Christmas will be observed by special amusements and entertainments, and facilities will be provided for prompt distribution of gifts and delicacies sent to the men.

Every window of Patterson-Fletcher Co. are displaying fur and fur-trimmed overcoats.

TO MAKE MILK SUPPLY OF INDIANA PURE AND SAFE

New Regulations Will Be in Force in State After First of Year.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 23.—New regulations to make the milk supply as safe and pure as is the supply in any state will be in force January 1, 1918, and will be rigidly enforced by health officers, according to an announcement by Dr. J. N. Hurty, state health commissioner. According to two decisions of the state supreme court, these rules, when promulgated, will have all the force of laws. The milk grades adopted in the rules are those approved by the national milk standards committee.

Health officers estimate that 2,000 lives would be saved, if it were possible to obtain an absolute pure milk supply in Indiana for one year. This estimate is based on the fact that about 4,000 infants die annually in Indiana of intestinal disorders and state officials assert that 80 per cent of this trouble is due to polluted milk.
"If only ten children were killed in the state annually by polluted milk," said Dr. Hurty, "it would be worth while to put forth strenuous efforts to secure pure milk and save that number of lives. The Indiana law declares that milk containing visible dirt is unlawful and condemned. Any health officer finding dirt in milk, should seize the same, take it before a justice and lay accusation against the person who sold the milk. This visible dirt is usually small particles of manure, carrying millions of putrefaction and fermentative germs."
Dr. Hurty urges that all health officers familiarize themselves with the new regulations.

Since the United States entered the war against Germany 470 of the 1,200 Americans who were living in that country March 1 have left, either for home or for neutral countries. More than half of those remaining live in Berlin. It is said that Americans are not molested by German officials, being subjected to no more restrictions than neutrals.

REMEMBER THE CHRISTMAS SEALS.

Don't forget the Red Cross Christmas seals. Never was there a time when the warfare against the white plague had need of stronger support than now. There will be increased draft against the resources of the anti-tuberculosis societies everywhere as the war goes on. There must be adequate means with which to meet it.

In a multitude of activities that relate to civic duties in the war—things that appear to relate more intimately to the actual prosecution of the war itself—the claims and the necessities of the anti-tuberculosis movement may be slighted and in some cases overlooked altogether. This would work a serious injury to a great labor that is just as essential as any other war work and in some of its aspects vital to the future welfare of men in the army and their families at home.

The annual campaign for the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals is now on. For a number of years Fort Wayne has specially distinguished herself by the generous measure of her support and it is hoped that, notwithstanding the great sums that have been contributed here to other imperative concerns since war was declared, this city will not relax its support of the war against the white plague. It has been the experience of the allies of America in the war that trench life greatly promotes the ravages of tuberculosis. France, Great Britain and Canada specially report great inroads of the scourge among their men. The return of those so afflicted from the front creates a new and large field of work for the anti-tuberculosis organizations.

While it is hoped and believed that the plans evolved for sanitation in the cantonments here and in the camps and trenches on the other side, together with the greatest medical organization and the most thorough preparations for proper feeding that ever have marked the care of large armies by any nation will have the effect of keeping the invasions of the white plague among our troops less serious than among the troops of any other country, it cannot be questioned that many of the soldiers of America will be stricken with the disease. They must be cared for when they are sent home. To these must be added that increase of cases which here at home will come as one of the consequences of war. Altogether, there will be more for the anti-tuberculosis agencies to do than ever before.

The purchase of the Red Cross Christmas seals should be more extensive this year than at any time heretofore. Everybody ought to buy them and use them.

AFTER THE PROFITEERS.

Federal regulation of food by authority of statute appears to have failed of gaining the respect of some of the profiteers. It is announced from Washington that National Food Administrator Hoover is preparing to inaugurate measures that will improve the situation.

Under the law passed last summer by congress the dealers who do not keep the statute may be prosecuted. The penalties of conviction are severe. Director Hoover is said to be getting ready to start prosecutions and, from what is known of Hoover, it may be taken for granted that appeal to the law in behalf of the national safety and the public welfare will be no more nominal recourse designed to bluff the speculators and profiteers, but a determined purpose to correct evil and punish those who perpetrate it.

Federal intervention in private business is a strange proceeding in this country, save in the instances of the great trusts and combines that now and then have been prosecuted. The ordinary channels of merchandising have had uninterrupted courses and no attention has been paid to what they did or the fashion they did it. Now comes a critical time. The nation is in a great war whereof the outcome depends vitally upon the way in which we produce, conserve and distribute our food supplies both for our own use and for the use of our allies, whose success or failure in the war completely invests our own destiny in the conflict. The food statutes are purposed solely with a view to enhancing and maintaining our national strength for the struggle. That is all there is to the food conservation program and the laws enacted to secure it.

Certain factors in our business life do not yet understand that this war is a fight for national existence and not a field day for extortion and rapacity. Profiteering and conservation do not mean the same thing, strange as this may appear to the profiteers. To make this clear, to teach the wholesome lesson that the extremity of the people is not the opportunity of the predatory, to breed in the popular mind that the law is for the good of all and not the joke of lawmakers, and to establish now and to keep uppermost that the government is not engaged in the sorry business of asking the people to deny and save and give that the government may be strong for its task while it permits them to be plucked by the rapacious, it may be necessary for Mr. Hoover to make drastic examples. Mr. Hoover will belie his whole good repute if he does not do just that if only that will serve.

If this war is to be won it will be won by the whole people working together. They cannot work together and they will not if the predatory elements are given field to scourge the people with extortion and rapacity. Not many prosecutions will be needed if the first of them are of the right sort and proper spirit to chasten the speculators and profiteers.

MAY DECLARE WAR AGAIN.

It probably adds nothing to the force of the argument that "Gumshoe Bill," of Missouri, acquiesces in it, but it nevertheless is true that certain considerations of the war will be improved by declarations of belligerency against Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria. Nominally we are at peace with those nations, yet actually at war with them. They can have no interest in and execute no act of the war that is not hostile to the American cause. They are fighting America's allies and sooner or later their soldiers will be fighting American soldiers. It is a situation of singular anomalies, as has been frequently pointed out.

There are perhaps better reasons here at home for making declarations of war against the allies of Germany. The country is harboring hundreds of thousands of subjects of Austria-Hungary and many thousands of subjects of Bulgaria. These ought to be regarded as enemy aliens quite as readily as are the unnaturalized Germans in this country. There is a good deal of nonsense in barring from certain prescribed zones men of German blood and birth, while men of other nationalities who are in all respects as essentially enemy aliens are permitted to go and come as they please.

The war we are in is with Germany and with Germany's allies. What advantages one of them advantages them all in common and what weakens one one weakens them all together. The hope that by avoiding an actual break with Austria and Bulgaria there might be some political gain that in the outcome would cripple Germany and make her allies more anxious for peace, promises to have no realization. Germany completely dominates her allies and will until she herself has been beaten. They dare not detach themselves. They ought to be treated by America as the belligerents that they are.

There should be no patience with those who scoff at and defy the regulations purposed to conserve food, but there should be some spirit of toleration for those who do not yet know just how to make the saving. The most abundantly supplied and the most wasteful people on earth with their foodstuffs, Americans have never before felt the tooth of necessity. Most of them do not yet feel it and a great number of them do not believe they ever will feel it. Those who are not disposed to take the admonitions of the food administration seriously will know their mistake later. It is more than the work of a day, however, to teach the people of this country that they can live better on less than is their wont, but the lesson will get home in due time.

THE PROMISE OF RUSSIAN PEACE

(This is the Narrative of a Red Triangle Man Who is Working With That Section of the American Army Now in the Trenches.)

When our American troops started for the front we fed them every four hours for forty-eight hours. They came in cold and tired and thirsty. We had six hundred loaves of bread for them, twelve cases of jam with twenty-four cans in a case, and three hundred pounds of coffee. We had two cheeses, weighing one hundred and eighty pounds each. We took a location on the Quai, set up stoves, a boiler and served real American coffee. We gave the coffee away. For sandwiches we charged twenty-five centimes. They cost us thirty-four centimes. I went thirty-six hours on four slices of bread and a coffee.

Then I started off with the men—artillery, they were. We left at 8 p. m., on a Friday. Twenty-nine of us were in a boxcar with a bale of hay. When the wire came off the hay we needed a gas mask for the dust that shook out. There wasn't room for all to sleep. We were saddlers, shoers, mechanics, the ninth section of a battery.

We woke to a foggy morning. The men thought they were on the way to Paris. But we had come to the city of —, in a corner of France. We took the guns off the wagon, and marched seventeen kilometers to the town of —. We slept that night in the last of a barn. Men have not slept there before us, and by morning I had a ring of white welts around my ankle from lice. We lived there for three days with those visitors that didn't appear on the roll-call. And for nine days we never took our clothes off.

The boys were advised to slip off their revolvers. We rented a kitchen as a storeroom for the guns. In renting that kitchen I wore out my twenty-two words of French, but we got the kitchen and slept there in the room with the guns. We stayed five days in the place with the men, none line of the battery. The horses had large appetites and ate up calissons and any other leather stuff. One man came in and reported with his overcoat in rags. He said he was sorry, but his horse had got hungry in the night.

I thought I would go further up, so I got a horse. He was thin. I give you that for background, so you will be sympathetic to my next. The orders were to ride bareback, and I had to ride him bareback razorback. For the next two days I ate my meals standing up.

Then I went to the brigade commander and let me go to the front. We came to the first village this side of the border. It was full of men billeted. I said I was tired enough to give seven francs for a bed. An old woman gave me a room in a house with the end blown off. She was caressing the family. His horse line of. She seemed to feel this way about it: "I'm about at the end of the line, anyhow, and I'll stay by the stuff."

Two colonels walked me up to the dugouts, and that was where I parted friendship with my long overcoat. It slapped mud every step.

Thirty men were in the dugout in fetid air. The Germans were one hundred yards away. In between looked like a lot of country anywhere. Shells were coming in casually, landing in a field about one hundred yards away. When we came back along the communication trench we found the ceiling of it (what we call the sleeper in a mine) shot through with a shell.

Then I went to find our battery. Out along an old Roman road we came to a farmhouse located where a wise farmer would place it. The house was in ruins. All through this section men had been buried where they fell, batteries were dug in on the hillside, and soldiers were billeted in the ruins of villages. The fields around the farmhouse were shell-pitted. The Germans threw in one more shell at the house and killed two cooks and an assistant. Somewhere along the road a battery was dug in on the roadside. You saw gun-pits and then nine-foot dugouts, and then more gun-pits. There was chicken wire with grass tied in for camouflage, a wooded hill, and a maze of barb-wire. I went into the mess kitchen for American soldiers, got the loan of a meat-kit, and had prunes, potatoes, meat and bread. I slept on the mountainside in my half of a pup tent, with my head cased in a trench shovel. We went to bed at six-fifteen. Life is a blank after the active hours.

In the morning we dug emplacements for the guns. We were supposed to wait till the four guns were dug in. But when the first gun was nested the boys couldn't wait to get the rest ready. They had to let the Boches know they had come. At 4 p. m. on October 24 they sent the first shell fired by an American battery from an American-dug emplacement. It was Battery — of the — field artillery.

"Here's the first shot we're handing to the Germans," they said, and they all agreed it had to kill at least thirty-six men.

One man said our aim was bad.

"Don't be afraid," he said. "You'll see a German pop up over the hill asking, 'Did we throw them something?'"

We sent four shrapnel for range, and took the distance at six thousand yards.

"Hush five to the left, same range, same elevation," came back on the telephone, and then.

"She's on her way."

They gave me the case of the first shell. I carried it on my belt, where it kept rubbing the spine. The boys fired five rounds before supper. They used French Seventy-Fives.

"Mark all your data and go home," was the order, and they chalked the gun shield.

Another battery fired sooner than we did, but not from an American-dug emplacement. They fired from an orchard. The case of that shell went to French hands.

The purpose of my trip was observation and laying out an organization for Y. M. C. A. work. So I went with a papoose containing a tooth brush, socks and underwear. But I managed to smuggle in writing paper and games.

I came back by mule team, walked to —, flagged a Ford for the seven-kilometers to —, and so down to Paris.

While we were at the front the soldiers spent their spare time in getting up a good American meal in the latrine—beefsteak, peas, and crisp celery. Some of the fellows slept in old dugouts, but most preferred pup tents. They liked the experience.

"This is Jake," they said.

For Red Triangle work with them we are using two Fords, a motorcycle, and a truck. In the base towns we are putting a double-valved tent and a fire so they will have a warm place to sit and write. We shall sell them socks, chocolate, malted milk, and coffee. For our men at the front we will carry stuff in the Ford as far as we can get, and then go the rest of the way to the emplacement on foot. We are starting work with five Red Triangle men. We shall visit the outpost dressing stations and bring them supplies. Three of the men working at the front are Henry Crane, the nephew of the Rev. Frank Crane the son of Dr. Robert Speer, and Shaw, the old Columbia center rush.

This experience in the trenches has meant a lot to two armies. It has cheered up the French, and it has solemnized our men.

MANY MARRIED MEN MUST SERVE IN THE ARMIES OF LIBERTY

By GILSON GARDNER.

The new draft regulations will not apply to men now in the cantonments. The regulations apply only to candidates for the second selective service army about to be raised.

"The men who have been selected are selected," said Colonel Gullion of the provost marshal general's office. "They are members of the first selective draft army. These new regulations have nothing to do with them. It makes no difference if some of them would have escaped under the new regulations. These matters cannot be forever litigated. Therefore, the new regulations will not be applied to old cases."

The new regulations appear to make it almost impossible for a married man to serve.

"I predict," said Colonel Gullion, "that there will be a good many married men in this second army. It has been suggested that the first classification will number two million men, and that the army will be mostly recruited from class one. Even if this were true, there are married men in class one. The married man who does not actually support his family is subject to draft. A married man dependent on his wife is among those to be first called on. Married men not usefully engaged, but living on incomes acquired independently of their labor, also are in class one.

"Class two begins to take in married men very quickly. It includes cases in which the wife or children are not mainly dependent on the man's labor for support, because of other sources outside the wife's earning power, also the man whose wife earns nearly as much as he, by special work she would have a prospect of continuing if the husband left her. In other words, the husband of a business woman earning a good income is in class two, and likely to be called.

"Only when a man has a wife or children mainly dependent on his labor for support, does he get into class four, far from conscription."

UMBRELLA CARRYING ANTS FOUND IN MEXICO

In Mexico there is a variety of ants that carry little green umbrellas, made from bits of leaves, to protect their bodies from the fierce tropical sun. Sometimes, writes a contributor who has lived in the turbulent republic across the Rio Grande, I have seen two ants walking together, while one antilettly carried the umbrella over the two. At other times, she says, I have seen them, when going in opposite directions, stop and salute each other before they passed on.—Youth's Companion.

EXPOSE PLOTTERS IS APPEAL OF PATRIOTS

Washington, Nov. 27.—"Organize a nominate for membership every man and woman in your community who is circulating malicious rumors and repeating false reports that tend to cast suspicion and distrust upon our government and thus hamper the successful prosecution of the war."

This is the message today being sent out by the national committee of patriotic societies through its honorary chairman, Lieut. Gen. S. B. M.
Young and William Mather Lewis, executive secretary, to the loyal citizens of every city and village in the

It further suggests that a membership list be posted on some conspicuous of their narrators be sent to the local newspapers and to the headquarters of the national committee in Washington.

Tales from Ali Quarters.
"Americans boast of a sense of humor and a lack of gullibility which should make them proof against the German inspired lies now being so persistently circulated," the committee says. "From every corner of the country come tales that prominent government officials have been shot as spies, at Fort Leavenworth that our soldiers at the cantonments must buy their own food or starve to death; that the government officials are about to raid home kitchens and commandeer the food."

"It is whispered about that an American battleship has been sunk with all on board and that the navy department is suppressing the news; that hundreds of wounded American soldiers have been stealthily landed in New York; that the execution of soldiers is part of the daily routine in our camps."

"Even the banks do not escape, but are about to be robbed by no less a personage than Uncle Sam."

"High Time to Act."
"It is high time that Americans who lay claim to the slightest patriotism should challenge the truthfulness of these tales, and nail lies so hard that they will not again be repeated. Every member of the war Ananias club is striking a knife into the back of some American soldier. Every American who is afraid to drag a member of this traitorous organization into the light of public condemnation should drape a yellow emblem over his door."
"The congenial liar and the pernicious gossip are two of the Kaiser's ablest aids in America today. The national committee of patriotic societies calls upon ministers, teachers, labor leaders, politicians, newspapers, editors, and all others who mold public opinion to join in the campaign with other loyal citizens everywhere to put these pests where they belong. Russia has been duped by this form of German Kultur; Italy has been stung by it, the natural countries of Europe are feeling its poison. Let America awake

AMERICAN GIRL TELLS STORY OF CAPTIVITY

Detained on Farm in Germany, the Victim of Army Officers.

Ayer, Mass., Nov. 27.—Indignities inflicted upon a 19-year-old American girl in Germany are described in a letter given out by the authorities at Camp Devane.

The letter was written to her brother, a private in the national army here, who turned the communication over to his superior officers to obtain his sister's release.

The man is of German descent, and came from New Hampshire. Before the outbreak of the war his mother went to Germany to visit her parents, and has remained there since.

Document Is Hoax.
Six months ago, he says, his sister received an official appearing document from Germany saying that her mother was ill there, and that she should make arrangements to go to see her, if possible. The girl's letter said:

"Mother is well, and has not been sick. When I arrived here I found that the whole report of her illness was a hoax. I was taken by the military officials and am now confined at a farm where there are hundreds of other girls and women. This is only one of lots of such places. I am so unhappy. Even the best classes of young girls and women are confined here and you can well imagine how they feel. We are not treated well and the food is horrible and it is even worse considering the conditions we are living under.

Cannot See Mother.
"Officers and men who have won glory in battle spend a month or more furlough here and we are subjected to all sorts of indignities. I am so unhappy that several times I have almost made up my mind to kill myself. Mother was held here for two months sometime ago and now she cannot visit me. I hope you will try to do something in America and help me."

The message, written on a piece of a paper, ended with a hastily written postscript that she must hurry to smuggle the note out.

When the private was told that nothing could be done to help his sister he at once applied for a transfer to the next unit sailing for the battle front.

THE MOST RECENT RULERS OF RUSSIA IN "EXECUTIVE SESSION."

The photograph is that of a typical scene in the streets of a city following the overthrow of the Kerensky government by the Bolsheviks. Soap box orators, silhouetted against lurid banners, occupied every street corner. The populace eagerly drank in their panaceas for Russia's troubles.

Miss Delight Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Evans, of Fulton street, is to leave on the first of December for Chicago, to be associated with the editorial department of Photo-Play magazine. So gifted in writing in a satirical vein and in discerning the comedy of what she sees is Miss Evans that she has been asked to learn the editorial business as it concerns this particular magazine, and will be an assistant to the editor-in-chief with the purpose of getting familiar with the editorial view point and learning what it requires. Naturally Miss Evans has an instinctively good choice of words and her writing is smooth and her language fluent without being commonplace. As she is but a junior in the Fort Wayne high school it is hardly to be said of her accomplishment that it has been acquired by many years of study or reading. Miss Evans has been working hard since school closed in June, and in the December issue of the magazine by which she is employed are short line interviews with Douglas Fairbank and Mary McAllister. The appointments for Miss Evans to meet these moving picture stars were made by the editor of Photo-Play magazine.

Miss Anna Koehlinger was the guest of honor at a pre-Thanksgiving dinner of beautiful appointments given by Mrs. Henry Pressler, of Northwood boulevard, and Miss Ivy Schild, who was the assisting hostess. Covers were laid for eleven and the company enjoyed a dinner of delicious preparation at 7 o'clock. Ophelia roses formed the decoration and each guest received a bouquet of the roses, with Miss Koehlinger particularly favored. Every detail of the arrangements called out the yellow and white coloring even to the wrapping of the personal gifts which Miss Koehlinger received. After dinner there was a hunt for hidden hearts and the prizes in the success of the scurrying for them were also presented to Miss Koehlinger so that she went home with more remembrances than her arms could hold.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Blodgett, of West Berry street, are going to Chicago to dine with relatives on Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Amelia Becker is going to Kendallville to remain over Thanksgiving with relatives.

Mrs. Harriet Larimore has returned from a visit in Chicago with her sister, Mrs. O. S. Keith.

Mrs. Herman Kucher, of West Jefferson street, is to leave this week for Atlanta, Ga., to visit her son, Lieut. Paul Kucher.

Mrs. Ella Evans, of California, who has been spending some weeks here with relatives, is going to New York on Saturday to remain indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Walker are to have as their guest over Thanksgiving Mrs. Irvin Walker, of Grand Rapids.

Mrs. W. H. Kelly and son, Billy, of Cleveland, are visiting her father, H. A. Keplinger, and will remain several weeks.

Miss Alice Graff, of Toledo, who is en route to San Francisco, Cal., to remain during the winter months, is stopping a few days with Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Brentlinger.

One of the stories appearing in the December issue of Saucy Stories magazine is from the pen of Mrs. J. J. Muir, of Fairfield avenue. Mrs. Muir's story is entitled "The Social Climber."

The Carle club members spent Saturday afternoon with Miss Ethel Cox, of West Jefferson street, and discussed its customary charity work for the season. The club recently donated $15 to Red Cross work.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kuhns and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Evans are to leave on Thursday for a four months' southern trip which they will spend chiefly in Mississippi.

Dr. and Mrs. B. M. Edlavitch are to have as their guests over Thanksgiving Mrs. Edlavitch's niece, Miss Ney, of Harrisonburg, Va., and Louis Gettelson, of Chicago. In the afternoon Mrs. Edlavitch will give a tea for her niece, who is a student at Ohio State university.

Mrs. Harold Stark and daughter, Margaret Ruth, of Detroit, arrived in the city on Monday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Taylor. Mr. Stark will join his family on Wednesday and N. N. Fisher, who is located in Detroit, too, will come at the same time to join his family at the Taylor home. As Thanksgiving and the anniversary of Mr. Taylor's birth fall on the same day this year, the day of giving thanks takes on more than the usual observance.

Miss Florence Eckrich entertained at her home on Lewis street Sunday afternoon from 3:00 to 8:00 o'clock for her friends. The rooms were

Fifty Years Old ---She Looks 29

Her Beauty Secret—
Buttermilk and Cream

Before I knew how to keep myself looking young and attractive at the age when most women appear wrinkled and old, I endured all the sharp pangs of neglect from the very ones whose admiration was most anxious to retain. How a woman is handicapped the moment youthfulness and beauty have gone! Unless she can ward off the tell-tale marks of age so destructive to fascination and charm, her future is bound to be one of disappointments and keen regrets. Yet, judging from my own experience, I see no reason why any woman should not regain the clear, velvety smoothness of her skin and look five to fifteen years younger by means of the same simple recipe which I used with such great success myself. Not only it dispelled every sign of wrinkles, but skin has become so firm and beautiful no longer would I need the effort of using any other. At night I simply wash with ordinary buttermilk and rub thoroughly with the roseated cream. When my face was badly wrinkled, I used Japanese eye pencils in connection with the roseated cream and obtained quick results on even the deepest wrinkles of long standing when everything else had failed. To correct all appearance of a shiny nose, enlarged pores or oily skin I found the eye pencil very effective. By following this easy and inexpensive French recipe I know that most women can keep their complexion clear and beautiful and their wrinkles and complexion so improved that they will be envied by all.

Note:—Pure roseated cream. Cream Tokalon Roseated—which is mentioned in the above article—is guaranteed by its manufacturers to banish complexion blemishes and make any woman look years younger and far more beautiful in ten days' time or the price will be refunded. The following local merchants stated that despite the war, they could supply the French created products: Meyer Brothers, Dreier Drug Co., Wolf & Lessor. —Advertisement.

AUTO ABANDONED AT COLUMBIA CITY

Thieves Probably Made Get-away in It and Then Took a Train.

(Special to the Sentinel.)
Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 27.—An old Lexington auto, bearing license No. 6186, Indiana, 1917, was driven in front of the Frank Hollis residence Sunday evening and left standing. It had only one tire, and Marshal Gregg took it in charge Monday, under the impression that thieves from some surrounding point had made a "getaway" in the old machine and taken a train from Columbia City.

GRAY HAIR INDICATES AGE? NO! NO! STYLISH

Gary hair has become the style. Just why it should be connected with age is something that cannot be answered. Any one who is 21 or over is likely to have gray hair. Certainly a girl 21 need not hide her gray hairs thinking they signify age.

One excellent argument in favor of the present fashion for this color of tresses is that gray hair does much to make a woman look kinder and sweeter and more beautiful. With the changing of the hair the whole face softens in expression. This is partly due to the fact that gray hair has a queer little way of bringing out the pink in your cheeks and bringing out the darker color in your eyes.

A Christmas Treasure House of Precious Gifts

ONE step inside the street door, and the confusion of the street dies behind you. You are in a palace. The dash of gems, the gleam of gold and silverware, the hum and murmur of many voices—best of all, the radiant faces, show this to be the choosing place of Christmas gifts most precious to giver and receiver.

Here a man and woman bend over the diamond brooches—there a young girl is choosing a gold penknife for some one—we can guess who! An old gentleman lovingly fingers the gold thimbles—there is a delicate finger-tip very dear to him somewhere!

"He will go crazy about this," says a woman to a man as they select a boy's watch. And cannot you see the happiness of the girl for whom that exquisite silver toilet set is being chosen?

Ah! it is this human interest, this JOY, that is being created in this Jewelry Store just now, that makes it a magnetic and wonderful place. It is as if the people knew exactly where to come to get exactly what they want!

So it goes on all over the Jewelry Store. Beautiful opera glasses, silver photograph frames, diamond and platinum brooches and bar pins, bracelets and rings, necklaces and pendants, exquisite pearls, translucent sapphires and emeralds and rubies, silver and gold articles for toilet tables, gleaming silverware for the home-maker, timepieces for men and women and young people, clocks of every kind, crystals and enamels, gold knives, cuff buttons and scarf pins, gold and silver cigar and cigarette cases, vanity cases and beautiful bags, lorgnettes, watch chains and fobs, cigar cutters, gold and silver pencils—well, of everything there is plenty—except the days yet left between now and Christmas!

PRO-GERMAN YARN ABOUT DOCTORS IS BLOWN UP

Indianapolis, Nov. 26.—That pro-German yarn about "60,000 allied doctors killed in the war" has simmered down to facts and records, and it is found that the total of doctors killed with the British forces in three years and two months of active service, is 268, out of 12,000 engaged, and the other armies have lost in the same ratio.

American newspapers, and even the journal of the American Medical society, thoughtlessly and foolishly printed an article circulated by the pro-German press agencies in this country, falsely telling the people that 429 doctors were killed in one day, and that the average "expectancy" of life for the doctor in active service was twenty-one days.

Here, according to the pro-German press service, more doctors were "killed in one day" than actually were lost by the British in three years and two months of fighting.

This boche bosh did not deter Indiana doctors from offering their services, nor did it deter the wives and women folk of the patriotic physicians of America, though it was evidently the purpose of the enemy to demoralize the women and hamper the United States government in its quest for surgeons for the army.

Dr. Charles P. Emerson of the Indiana state council of defense in calling attention to the falsehoods told by the pro-German press agencies, says that the remarkable story of the high mortality among doctors is a typical pro-German absurdity, one of many yarns Americans must guard against.

Dr. Emerson calls attention also to the fact that many physicians who have accepted commissions for military duty have made the mistake of selling their practices, their autos, breaking up their households and abandoning their ordinary wives and living immediately on accepting their commissions, later finding they must wait several weeks or months before being called on to report for service. He urges doctors to go on with their ordinary affairs until notified to report. The government gives ample notice in its order to report.

ELKS' PLAN RABBIT HUNT FOR CHRISTMAS

The Elks will hold a big rabbit hunt the two days following Christmas and will turn over the bunnies to the poor people of the city. The hunters will leave the club rooms at the morning following Christmas and will start on their two days' hunt, returning the following evening. Dr. Guy Emrick is chairman of the drive committee and each hunter has pledged to turn over all his rabbits for the poor.

GREAT CROPS OF EVERY FOODSTUFF BUT WHEAT

World's Shortage is About 15 Per Cent. Outside of Central Powers.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—Summer world crops of corn, oats, potatoes, rice, sugar beets and tobacco for this year are shown by estimates compiled by the International Institute of Agriculture at Rome, made public by the department of agriculture. Other crops are estimated as follows: Rye, 147,000,000 bushels, 92.2 per cent. Barley, 587,000,000 bushels, 95 per cent. Oats, 2,682,000,000 bushels, 113.9 per cent. COMMANDS BRITISH ARMY THAT SMASHED HINDENBURG'S LINE

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.
LIEUTENANT GENERAL SIR JULIAN BYNG.

Smokers rather suspect the tobacco trust's excess profits taxes also, with perhaps some more private profits on the side.

The retailer is also coming in for his share of suspicion.

Now if it is true that the tobacco trust or the retailer are covering an increased profit with the camouflage of "war tax," they are indulging in a peculiarly odious form of profiteering. Not only are they taking advantage of the war to gouge the people, but are making war unpopular by creating the impression that the war taxes are unreasonable.

Here is an extract from a letter received by Uncle Sam from the wife of a marine in France:
"My husband is with the marine corps somewhere in France, and since his arrival in France I have endeavored to keep a small supply of cigarettes going to him every few weeks. Just a month ago the business houses of this town posted placards announcing the price of cigars and cigarettes going to him every few weeks to be advanced on account of the war tax. At that time some grades of cigarettes were raised 1 cent per package, others 2 cents per package. The grade I had purchased had been raised from 10 cents per package to 12 cents. Two weeks ago I bought some at that price. Now just yesterday, I went to the same store and was advised they are now 13 cents per package—that the last shipment, of which they were some, demanded a selling price of 13 cents on account of war tax."

"To us, whose husbands or sons are at the front, and to whom we have endeavored to give a little homey pleasure by sending them their favorite brand of smoke, this weekly raise of prices, account the ever handy excuse 'war tax,' works a hardship to some extent."

The price changes she referred to

are typical of the changes in all lines of tobacco products.

Before the recent increases one popular brand of cigarettes, selling at 10 cents for a package of 20, was sold to the retailer for 7.8 cents a pack, netting him a profit of 2.2 cents per package.

Now the same package of cigarettes sells for 13 cents, although the war taxes increased only one cent per package. The increased war tax is only 50 cents per thousand on cigarettes of this grade, which figures out one cent on a package of 20.

But today the retailer is making only 3 of a cent more per package than when the package sold for 10 cents. The balance of the increase is either gouged by the tobacco trust, or is due to increased prices of raw material or cost of production.

The tobacco trust now composed of a number of ostensibly "competing" companies first raised the price of this cigarette to 8.9 cents a package.

The retailer advanced the price to 12 cents and increased his profit to 3.1 cents a package. A little later the trust raised the price to 10.5 cents a package, and the retailer raised his price to 13 cents. However, his profit decreased to 2.5 cents per package.

Wherever the money goes, it is not fair to tell the consumer that the "war tax" is responsible for raising the price of a package of cigarettes three cents, when the tax is only one cent.

Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $2, and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Easily done.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you would hardly have in them all the curative power that lies in this simple "home-made" cough syrup which takes only a few minutes to prepare.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (60 cents worth), pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 45 cents and gives you a pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. It is pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and sugar syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the throat, tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes that line the throat, chest and bronchial tubes, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, be sure to get your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

CAMPAIGN FOR NEW MEMBERS

Red Cross Drive Will Start
December 17 and Close on the 25th.

MULLER RETURNS
FROM CLEVELAND

Those Who Must Stay at Home Can Have Part in Winning War.

Harry Muller, chairman of the Red Cross drive committee for Allen county, has returned from attending a meeting of the American Red Cross, held at the Hotel Stadler, in Cleveland, November 26. William G. Rose, director of the Christmas membership campaign of the Lake division, had charge of the meeting. He stated that this was an important campaign in that it was a campaign not for funds, but for the mobilization of a patriotic civilian army, an army of 15,000,000, to stand behind the fighting army of the United States. He stated further that membership in the Red Cross, that is, enlistment in this army, meant an open declaration of Red Cross principles. The principal purpose in the Christmas membership drive are:

1. To force Germany to realize that the concerted spirit of the American people is back of the American government in this war.

2. To spur the morale of our soldiers by pledging to the cause the hearts, minds and money of 15,000,000 Americans back home.

3. To bind the wounds of our fighters so that every possible drop of American blood may be saved to strengthen world democracy.

4. To link the spirit of the Red Cross with the spirit of Christmas, and hasten this righteous spirit that means world peace.

The people who must stay at home are going to have an important part in winning this war but if they do their bit they must do it only through organized effort. This is the way the Red Cross intends to help. If you are not already a member you want to enlist during this drive, and get the button with the little red cross blazed in front.

With the cross in hand look at its four corners and think that each corner stands for one of the four above listed principles, which by this cross will be accomplished.

The membership drive will open December 17 and will close December 25. The campaign is national and the intensive phase will start all over the country with the break of dawn on December 17 and ends with the dawn of Christmas morn with "Every American home a Red Cross home." Dean H. P. Almon Abbott, of Trinity church, has just returned from abroad and told of the wonderful spirit of the Red Cross in doing up of the great need for further and stronger efforts. One of the things we can do back here is for every person to get back of the Red Cross as a member. This cause is organized patriotism which will bring results.

Charles Oswald, efficiency expert in charge of the accounting plans for the lake division, stated that the quota for Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky was 1,600,000 members and Fort Wayne was assigned a quota of 25,000 for Allen county. Arrangements are being made throughout the city and all over Allen county, that at 7:30 on Christmas eve lighted candles will be placed behind Red Cross service flags in every home, and at the same hour the church bells of the city and communities will chime the announcement of the hour, that Allen county has linked the Christmas spirit with the Red Cross of humanity by completing its quota of membership.

IN THE CHURCHES

HOUSE TO HOUSE

CANVASS IS MADE

In Interest of Evangelistic Campaign at Crescent Avenue Church.

Monday afternoon was spent by the Barr evangelistic party together with the pastor's wife in a house-to-house canvass of Lakeside. The members of the party hope in these weeks of the campaign to come in personal touch with every resident of the community. A telegram was received Monday stating that Mrs. Barr was on her way from Hattiesburg and as soon as she arrives a drastic campaign will be begun for the awakening of this part of Fort Wayne.

Miss Mason gave the message Monday evening from the text, "As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have eternal life." She said in substance: "The serpent was lifted up for any person actually bitten by serpent." Jesus came not to call the righteous but sinners to repentance. For those bitten by sin, Jesus Christ is lifted up—for you who are playing with sin—for you who have warned it in your bosom—or for you who have been mortally wounded by sin—there is no case too hard for the Son of God. The bite of the serpent was mortal. "The wages of sin is death." There was no limit to the damage done by the serpent. The remedy had power. The promise had no qualifying clause. The remedy provided was of divine origin. There was no human remedy for the bite of the serpent. The remedy provided looked unlikely—just to look at a figure on a pole, but what God orders He puts potency in. We do not need a serpent of brass. The remedy was an enduring one. Had it been made of wood or any other material, it might have been broken or decayed, but a serpent of brass would last as long as the very serpents. As long as there was a man to look at it, there was a remedy. The brazen serpent might have been carried into the home of the sufferer, he might have had to have a priest to perform some ceremony—some prayers might have had to be offered, but all he was commanded to do was to look at it. It was a remedy of brass. If he had been bitten and refused to look on one could look for him. If you look at Christ believing in Him, you will be saved—if you refuse to look, you will be lost. There is nothing in Christ's death to save you unless you trust in Him. The sufferer was healed at once; it did not take an hour or a day—the cure was immediate. Pardon comes like a flash of lightning. There was not one in the camp that looked who died. There is not a sinner who comes to Christ who remains under condemnation.

League With Band.

Toledo, Nov. 27.—The police announce this afternoon the capture of the six bandits who held up the Huebner Brewery company bookkeeper to-day and got away with $37,000. The police also announced the recovery of all the stolen money. In addition to the six men a 20-year-old girl, Wanda Urbatis, is under arrest. She was employed as telephone girl in the Huebner brewery office. Her brother is one of the alleged bandits under arrest. The bandits attacked the chief bookkeeper, beat him senseless, and stole $37,000. The robbers escaped in an automobile stolen yesterday evening from A. G. Speiker. The bookkeeper, Anton Comes, 56, has been with the company forty years and for years has made daily trips to the bank with the preceding day's receipts. He was attacked one block from the brewery office at 11:10 o'clock while on his way to catch a car to take money for deposit in the bank. Two of the bandits slugged him with billies and the others battered his head with beer bottles until he fell unconscious. Then they wrested from him a small black satchel which contained the money, ran around the corner to the waiting automobile and escaped.

ARE USING SHORT WEIGHT SCALES

City Sealer Tolan Discovers and Confiscates Five Weighing Machines.

City Sealer Tolan put in a good day's work Tuesday on the Dairy street market by confiscating five short-weight scales. A total of $3.50 was ordered rebated to purchasers whom the city sealer was able to find after the discovery of the short-weight scales. The owners of the scales offered no protest when told that they would have to refund to their customers, most of them preferring this procedure to a jail sentence.

One of the confiscated scales was found to register fifteen pounds when it should have read twelve and one-half pounds. As the purchase was a turkey it can readily be seen that the difference amounted to a considerable sum. Sealer Tolan stated that the only way to break up any chances of short weight, accidental or otherwise, is to bring any article that the purchaser thinks is short in weight to him to be weighed.

Price-Fixers at Work.

The unknown price-fixing expert was a little late Tuesday morning and one farmer suffered considerable embarrassment through his carelessness. When the price of turkey was asked the farmer responded: "Well, we haven't been given the price yet, but I think it will be 35 cents a pound dressed." Upon his arrival the price-fixer evidently found things unsatisfactory, for undressed turkey immediately rose from 25 to 28 cents a pound.

LADIES ARE OUT OF JAIL

Suffragettes Are Suddenly Released from Wash- ington Bastille.

TWENTY-TWO ARE ALLOWED LIBERTY

Some Mystery Surrounds Release of Ladies, Who Had Many Days.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Twenty-two women's party militants hunger-striking in the District of Columbia jail here were suddenly released today long before the expiration of their terms. Among them were Allen Fox, chairman of the party, and Lucy Burns, vice-chairman.

Women's party headquarters exultantly announced that the jail officials "had gotten enough" of the first American hunger-strike. In a procession of taxicabs the heroine militants, some of them showing signs of enforced feeding and wilful starvation, were taken in a triumphant procession to the headquarters.

It developed that the women were released on the order of one of the police court judges who summarily reduced all their sentences to expire today. What higher official ordered his action was not disclosed.

Jail officials could not be found to explain the release of the women long in advance of the expiration of their terms, some of which ran as long as seven months. Other attempts to get explanations through the local government were fruitless despite assurances some time ago that proper inquiries about the women at the jail would be answered by the proper authorities. In the absence of official charges it was not possible to determine who ordered their release. Most of the militants have been at the jail since Federal Judge Waddill ordered their removal from the workhouse at Occoquan, Va. Through their headquarters the women have issued revolting accounts of the forced feeding and while in the Virginia workhouse charged gross cruelties. All were serving sentences for picketing the white house.

Tobacco Habit Easily Overcome

A New Yorker, of wide experience, has written a book telling how the tobacco or snuff habit may be easily and quickly banished with no harmful effects. The author, Edward J. Woods, 1212 K. Station E, New York City, will mail his book free on request.

The health improves wonderfully after tobacco craving is conquered. Calmness, clear vision, normal appetite, good digestion, many vigor, strong memory and a general gain in efficiency are among the many benefits reported. Get rid of that nervous, irritable feeling; no more need of pipe, cigar, cigarette, snuff or chewing tobacco to pacify morbid desire.—Advertisement.

THE EVENING SENTINEL FILLS WOMEN'S NEEDS

Just now, in addition to the many reasons prevailing in ordinary times, there are numerous special reasons why the women who buy food and other supplies for the family should not let a day pass without a careful reading of every page of the Evening Sentinel.

Skip nothing. Read the news columns, editorials, selected women's features, the market page, store news of Fort Wayne merchants, want-ads—everything—as all hold money-saving suggestions.

NEW YORK FAVORITES RUMOR INVOLVES IN TRADE

Charley Herzog, Giant second baseman and captain who is said to be slated for the Reds. At the left and right, Fred Merkle and Larry Doyle of the Cubs who may be transferred to the Cardinals. In the center, George Cuthshaw of Brooklyn who may go to the Reds.

strain better than any man on the team, can be depended on at fullback. Neal, O. Thompson and Halgis are the mainstay in the line.

Immediately after this last contest, Coach Townsend will take hold of the basketball men, who until now have been working out in the armory under the direction of Captain Hunt.

Between twenty-five and thirty candidates for places on the quintet are out. Not only the number of men, but also the quality of the material gives rise to the hope of a winning combination in spite of the fact that not a member of last year's team remains about whom to begin the building of another five.

The new gym is rapidly nearing completion and there is no doubt that it will be completed in time to hold at least several of the home games on the Scarlet schedule. The work is being rushed as it is the hope of every one that some of the bigger games, those with Notre Dame, Indiana or Purdue, can be played on the new floor.

Tickets for the big game Thursday afternoon are now on sale. A good game is assured. The Kendallville Overland have not been scored upon this season, as the following record will show:

Elkhart, Sept. 23.—7 to 0; Fort Wayne Bachelors, Sept. 30.—13 to 0; Fort Wayne Tigers, Oct. 7.—32 to 0;

WOULD PLAY TIGERS. The Huntington A. C.'s want a game for next Sunday with the Fort Wayne Tigers. Huntington will guarantee expense for the trip, and the Tiger management is requested to write Donald McClure, Huntington Herald, manager of the A. C.'s for further details.

Big Ban's Lament. General, spare these men. Save me two-eighty-four. Please don't ask again. To leave them off to war. They've made me lots of dough. And there's plenty more to come. I, please don't make 'em go. I need 'em every one.

Think of my salary. Before you turn me down. It means more to me than to me. If they just hang a round. I love each hardened pluz. They work so hard, you know. I need 'em in my biz. Oh, please don't make 'em go.

You know I asked you to. To take me away to France. My belt line wouldn't do— I didn't have a chance. But now I'm asking you. To hear my tale of woe. Whatever else you do— Please don't make them go.

JUST LIKE SUICIDE. The slit season will open shortly. And still there are some who talk of the horrors of war. Yussif Hussain, wrestling in this country, advertises himself as the champion of Bulgaria. He hate to think what would become of a guy in Sofia who would advertise himself as the champion of the United States.

Billard players want to collect a fund of $10,000 for patriotic purposes. This is almost as hard a task as though the rascals tried to collect a fund of 48 cents.

VERY CALM TODAY! A cartoon showing a man in a suit looking calm while a bomb is about to explode.

IT AIN'T ENOUGH. Mike Gibbons and Packey McFarland are to box for the Summies according to a rumor. We doubt it. How are 2,000,000 Sammies at $30 a month going to raise the guarantee?

Ban Johnson would have Uncle Sam exempt 288 ball players. Ban's diplomacy is entirely too open. He should have them appointed baseball instructors in army camps.

Now that Gen. Byng has looked the Huns why not call on Gen. Zowig, Gen. Zan and Swatun to finish up the job?

RABBIT VS. CUPID. Rabbit Maranville will play football with a navy team. If he ever tackles Cupid Black and Cupid finds it out there may be trouble.

A fellow named Devers has been suspended by the Wisconsin boxing commission for laying down in a bout with Fred Fulton. Anyone who would lay down in a fight with Fulton ought to be shot at sunrise.

After reading the scores piled up by Georgia Tech several members of the Pittsburg team decided to get tonsillitis.

OR CROQUET MAYBE. Cornell has accused Rutgers of using rough tactics in a football game. What did Cornell think it was getting into, anyway, a game of tiddletwinks?

Ted Lewis has been boxing on the coast and has shown his patriotism by paying 3 cents postage on two letters which he did not have to write.

"Western league may quit," says a headline. The Western league has been quitting every winter since eighteen empty-six. Some day they may fool us and do it.

WE'LL VOTE FOR WILLIE/ HESTON ON ALL-AMERICAN ALL-TIME GRID BACKFIELD

By PAUL PURMAN.

Grantland Rice suggested that a backfield composed of Jim Thorpe, Ted Coy, Willie Heston and Walter Eckersall might well be considered the greatest and most powerful in the history of football, bringing considerable criticism from New England on account of Charley Brickley and Eddie Mahan, particularly the latter, being left out, and suggesting that Mahan be substituted for Heston.

It is years and years since Willie Heston was never stopped. Minnesota came as close to it as any aggressive backfield when Michigan was held to a 6 to 6 tie. But in this game Michigan Mahan, particularly the latter, being left out, and suggesting that Mahan be substituted for Heston.

It is years and years since Willie Heston was never stopped. Minnesota came as close to it as any aggressive backfield when Michigan was held to a 6 to 6 tie. But in this game Michigan Mahan, particularly the latter, being left out, and suggesting that Mahan be substituted for Heston.

During his college career Heston amassed a total of 99 touchdowns which gave him a total of 485 points. This was in the days when a touchdown counted five points instead of six and still his mark is fully 100 points ahead of any rivals.

Of course Heston played four years, while modern footballers play only three years, but Oliphant, the great Army scoring machine who is playing his sixth year of college football, does not come close to Heston's marvelous achievement.

To return to Heston's touchdown record, it must be remembered that it was before the day of the forward pass and the many trick plays which have been developed from it use making scoring easier in many instances, and that Heston's touchdowns were made by bucking through solid lines of fighting men or by circling ends where speedy, watchful backs lay in wait.

With all respect to Eddie Mahan, we believe we shall vote for Willie Heston.

THE CHAMPION HARD LUCK STAR OF THE GRID PRODUCED THIS SEASON

"Bull" Van de Graff, of the Army, the champion hard luck player of the current season. Heralded as one of the greatest linemen and kickers that ever came out of the South—he has been twice injured and will be out of the game the remainder of the season.

BLIND NECESSARY IN DUCK HUNTING; ACKERMAN TELLS HOW TO BUILD ONE

BY MORRIS ACKERMAN. (From Hunter and Trapper.) To the duck hunter blind building is not a mystery, but the beginner is likely to find it so.

The novice can construct a "duck blind," as well as the most experienced. Fact is most anyone can rig up some kind of a hide that may fool a duck—but if you have not mastered the art the amateur "blind" may not answer.

The smaller the blind and the closer it lays to the ground the better your chances for fooling the ever suspicious wild duck.

The material used in blind building as well as the manner in which it is constructed is of importance. This is especially true in that material used in one part of the country may not be found in another.

In addition to using as little material as possible on the blind the next thing of importance is to make one that does not contrast much with the surroundings.

If you are building in a marsh use marsh grass to cover your sticks. If the foliage is green where you are hunting use green leaves over your frame-work. If the blind is built near a leafless wood use a bit of dead wood and cover with dead leaves and brush.

If a blind is built in the water cover up both ends of your boat with brush or grass, building the part that conceals the hunters just high enough from the water to be able to "peep" over when sitting in the bottom of the boat.

The clothes one wears duck hunting are important. Keep your head down and sit tight. Don't go "over the top" with a black cap on a green brown blind frontage. If the snow is laying heavy on the top "edge" of your blind take a white handkerchief and cover up your hunting cap with it.

To be a successful hunter for ducks or any other kind of game be an Indian. To be an Indian you must look at things from the angle of the thing that is being pursued rather than your own.

Take a box of Univoco cigars home with you.

SUBURBAN DAY
WEDNESDAY

What Would We Do Without Christmas?

What could we substitute that would so mellow our natures and so warm the cockles of our hearts? Let us be glad there is such a holiday as Christmas. Let us be glad of the opportunity it gives to display a generous and friendly spirit. Let cheery faces and glad greetings make this the best Christmas of all. Christmas is essentially the children's holiday—little eyes are brightening already in expectation. "Santa Claus writes us that he is coming around just as usual in spite of the war and the work he has had to do for the soldiers and sailors and the little orphan children in Belgium, France and those other places where the terrible war is being fought."

Many of our soldiers and sailors were children only a little while ago. Now they are in training camps and across the ocean, a gift from "back home" will make them happier and more comfortable. Let nothing be too good for our boys.

This Christmas has its problems but they will be met in the spirit that finds joy in contributing to the happiness of others.

John Philip Sousa Snips Off Beard

We always thought temperamental lived in whiskers—but it appears not. John Philip Sousa has shaved his off—the whiskers, not the temperament.

The famous band leader is shown here before and after taking his snippers and razor in hand. That's a figure of course. Chances are that some barber did it. Looks stern and generalissimo-like, doesn't he? Well, he's leading a United States army band now, y'know.

PATRIOTIC MEETINGS

ALL OVER THE STATE

Gospel of Americanism to be Thoroughly Spread in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Nov. 26.—Three thousand patriotic meetings in Indiana in the coming year, under the direction of the state council of defense speakers' bureau, working with the bureau of the national council of defense and with the state schools of Indiana, will help spread the gospel of Americanism and the war service creed of loyalty.

More than 300 speakers are on the rolls of the speakers' bureau and are being directed by J. J. Pettijohn and his forces at the headquarters of the state council of defense. The Indiana speakers' bureau for educational work in the war has been copied by the national council of defense, and Indiana has been chosen as the field in which to give the national bureau its first tryout.

Captain Paul Perigord of the French army, who has spent two years and a half in the trenches, and who is in this country as one of the 150 French military instructors assisting training American soldiers, was asked to tour the state of Indiana for a week, speaking at Evansville, Terre Haute, Lafayette, Fort Wayne, South Bend, Indianapolis and elsewhere on a schedule arranged for the national council's bureau by the Indiana bureau.

Plans now are being worked out for financing the larger speaking campaign, and conferences of speakers, or schools of patriotic oratory will be held. The speakers' bureau expects to establish a library department where material for the speakers can be compiled and briefed. The educational campaign of speeches is to be co-ordinated as to the material used, and war truths are to be driven home in every community. The need for this sort of activity is emphasized as the work of the pro-German propagandists rises on all sides to confront defense workers. The more active the pro-German secret agencies become, the more necessary is the work done through the publicity and speakers' bureaus of the state council of defense. Eight hundred and forty-seven high schools in Indiana with 200 school superintendents endorsing the plan, are to be made centers of rational patriotism in the state, and meetings are to be arranged in these schools, in the churches, in moving picture theatres under the four-minute plan as well as in district schools and other centers.

The demand for speakers already is large and calls steadily increase in frequency and number. Speakers are called for in connection with various campaigns for funds, for organization work, for patriotic rallies and for purposes of instruction and enlightenment on this or that phase of war work. It is the purpose to have on call speakers who are prepared to discuss any war subject or meet any special demand for specific discussion. One community may seek speakers for purely patriotic demonstrations. Another may have reached the stage where the call is for direct facts as to what is being done and what must be done as Indiana's part of the work that is to help win the war.

Funds, facts, speakers and direction for the greatest drive ever projected by any speakers' bureau in the state are in course of preparation. It is understood the big speaking campaign will cost about $46,000, and of this amount Indiana university offers to stand $11,800, a similar sum being provided by the state council of defense, $3,700 from the State Normal, $2,000 from the League to Enforce Peace, $2,000 from the National Security league.

BOOM TIMES FOR THE MINERS OF KENTUCKY

Highest Wages Ever Known
Are Now Paid and All
Are Busy.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Nov. 26.—Mines in the coal fields of Western Kentucky are more fully supplied with labor, are getting a better car supply and are producing more coal than ever before in the history of this district. The first of these conditions is due to the fact that wages are now being paid that in normal times were unheard of, and which even at this time loom large. So greatly have miners earnings grown, that men have been drawn from other occupations all over this section and from cities and towns in other states.

The high wages, although bringing more men to the mine had not exerted their full effect until recently when the penalty clause which the federal fuel administration insisted be incorporated in miners' contracts, became effective. Previously men were able to earn such large wages, that they were satisfied to work only three days each week and to remain idle the rest of the time. Now the miners must work not less than five days each week or pay a penalty for each day that he fails to work.

The result is that men are drawn to the mines by big wages and then are compelled to work "full time" in order to realize those wages. The production therefore has jumped to the point where it closely approaches in many mines the highest rated capacity.

An illustration of what wages men about the mines are now being paid is given by the following rates of pay quoted in an advertisement recently published in several newspapers in this section. Among the offers were the following:

Boys to drive mules, $4; track layers, $4.25; track layers helpers, $3.75; and piece work wage scales for loaders and machine runners making possible daily earnings of from seven to eight dollars a day and even three or four dollars above that amount. The minimum wage inside the mine paid by the company publishing the advertisement is for day labor at $3.75.

It is not uncommon to find a mine superintendent in this district working on salary, under a contract entered into two or three years ago, who is getting much less than miners whose labor he directs. The railroad car shortage, a bugaboo of the mine operator within recent months, seems to have been relieved. Reports are that mines generally are getting sufficient cars to permit them being worked to capacity. Operators say, however, that even with the improvement in the labor and car supply they are unable to meet the demands made upon them, and that with the increase in this demand, which will come with real winter weather, the situation will be worse.

Ninety bushels of oats to the acre is the record made this year by Carl Vrooman, assistant secretary of agriculture, on one of his farms at Chenoa, Ill. The average for all the oats harvested on the Vrooman farms this year was seventy-three bushels an acre. The average production of oats an acre for Illinois for the last ten years is thirty-three bushels. The fact that Mr. Vrooman was able to more than double this average on his entire acreage and almost to treble it on one field, it is pointed out, is proof of the efficiency of the methods recommended by the department of agriculture.

THREE-DECKER BARGE TO TRANSPORT SHEEP

Ingenious Method to Get Big Flocks to Winter Grazing Lands.

Washington, Nov. 26.—By the use of a three-decker barge capable of carrying 2,700 sheep at a time, hitherto unused range for approximately 75,000 sheep at the head of Lake Chelan, on the Chelan national forest, Washington, has been made available for use. This, according to grazing experts of the forest service, is an example of the way in which new range on the national forests is being opened up in an effort to increase the country's meat supply.

Lake Chelan, which, officers of the forest service say, is one of the most beautiful bodies of water in the west, is 52 miles long. While the head of the lake is accessible only by boat and narrow mountain trails, the lower end is convenient to a railroad and also to the bunchgrass ranges of eastern Washington upon which the sheep men of that region have for many years wintered large numbers of sheep. The lack of summer range, however, the summer range at the head of Lake Chelan, it is explained, is particularly good but is cut off from the nearest ranches by a long stretch of exceedingly rough country over which sheep cannot be driven without severe losses.

Officers of the forest service suggested the construction of a barge to be towed by a small steamer, which would make it possible to transport the sheep to the head of the lake. The suggestion was carried out with the aid of the railroad, and 37,000 sheep were put on this practically new range in the first season. Not only was the national forest land utilized, but the route up to the lake offers a satisfactory way to a large adjoining area in British Columbia which, though inaccessible from the Canadian side may now be reached from this side.

The plan was so successful that the stockmen intend to construct another and larger barge for use next season.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY'S WAR NEWS

trols have been driven back to the southern side of the Nahr-el-Azjel. The situation in Russia shows little improvement and the country is described as being on the verge of civil war. Efforts of the Bolshevik government to arrange an armistice continues and Berlin and Petrograd are reported in communication by wireless, presumably in connection with the peace offer of the Maximalists. The second army on the Russian northern front has removed its officers, agreed to the Bolshevik armistice proposal and pledged its support to the extremists.

The American government has received the armistice note from the Petrograd government and it is under consideration. The ministers of the allied powers in the Russian capital, it is reported, unofficially will demand their passports if Russia enters into separate peace negotiations.

Gen. Kaledines, the Don Cossack leader, in a dispatch received in London, says, is master of the situation in Russia. He is in control of most of the grain growing territory in the south and is said to hold the Russian gold reserve, reported removed from Petrograd a year before the war began. The Russian soldiers at the front are reported desperate from hunger, due to the exhaustion of food supplies, and mutinies are said to have broken out.

question can arise which cannot be determined substantially as questions between the various states or provinces are determined, at Washington or Ottawa.

"As regards some nations I question whether as yet we can trust the future solely to even the most carefully devised treaties—lest in any real emergency we suddenly discover that they are regarded merely as scraps of paper. Therefore, on the general matter of securing lasting international peace, I feel that probably our action ought to be two-fold. We ought, with entire sincerity, to take every step which makes it likely that thereby the chances of future war will be minimized. But we should treat this action as an addition to, and not as a substitute for, preparing in advance to guard our safety by our trained strength. Let us in good faith enter into all reasonable treaties which will render it less likely in the future that the peace of the world will be broken. But let us not trust too much to paper guarantees.

"Let us, ourselves, make no agreements we cannot keep, and observe every agreement into which we enter. In addition, let us, as a matter of permanent policy, keep our strength prepared for our own defense. In order to do this, let us insist that every right enjoyed shall carry with it the obligation to perform the corresponding duty. Inasmuch as the first duty of a nation is self-defense, let us insist that, in our democracies universal suffrage shall go hand in hand with universal service, and therefore with obligatory universal training of our young men in time of peace so that they may be fit and ready to defend the hearthstones of the nation in time of war."

Colonel Roosevelt declared that what had been accomplished by the Canadians and by their sister colonies was without a parallel in history.

"You and they," he said, "have sent your valiant sons in hundreds of thousands across the vast oceans to fight on fields of ancient fame which their deeds have rendered still more famous. It has been a proof of the vision, of the power to look ahead and to sacrifice present ease for large future interests, which is possessed only by peoples that are mighty of soul. Only have made your bodies the servants of your souls' desire.

"I did not accept any invitation to speak formally in Canada until the entry of our own beloved country into the war gave me the right to come here with pride, as an equal speaking to equals; for now, friends, your countrymen and mine have a common duty and the same single purpose. The duty incumbent on both of our nations is to fight this war through to a finish, no matter how long it takes and at no matter what cost of life and treasure, until we win the peace of overwhelming victory. Our common purpose is to break the offensive strength of the Prussianized Germany of the Hohenzollerns, so as to redeem Belgium and secure ample atonement for her wrongs, so as to restore to France what Germany took from her, so as to free every people now tyrannized over by Germany or her vassal allies, Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria. When the world is safe for orderly freedom, for all the people, great or small, who live justly under the governments of their choice, then, and not until then, our purpose in this war will have been achieved. Then, when peace comes, we must endeavor to make it lasting; and in order that we may be even measurably successful in this endeavor, we must show both sincere desire to realize an ideal and also sound common sense in the course we follow to that end."

WINTER COMFORTS TO OUT-OF-TOWN FOLKS

Rest Rooms for Women and Children Are Appreciated by Visitors.

The establishment of a public rest room for the women and children who come to the city on the regular Wednesday Suburban shopping trip is appreciated by many who are strangers in the city. For the information of all who may not be informed, it should be known that the conveniences and comforts of the women's rest room on the main floor of the court house are free to all, especially to those who come from other towns and the farming districts. The rest room is maintained by the county and the wisdom of the plan is shown especially on Suburban day when hundreds who are strangers to the city are glad to find a place for rest until the time for the return trip. Many of the stores also are equipped with rest rooms and waiting rooms for the convenience of visitors.

Tomorrow, if the weather is good will find an exceptionally large crowd in town because of the natural growth of the popularity of the Suburban shopping day idea, and also because of the close approach of the holidays.

Many are finding it convenient to trade on Wednesday when the crowds of Fort Wayne people are not so large as they are on Saturday. The columns of The Sentinel today present a bewildering array of splendid Suburban day "specials" for the benefit of out of town shoppers.

Store closed all day Thursday. Do your shopping before 6 o'clock tomorrow.

CONDUCTOR'S APPAREL APPEALED TO GEORGE

Conductor's Uniform Hat Looked Like Own, Therefore Mistake, Says Negro.

George Lovell, a colored boy from Detroit, was arrested on a larceny charge Monday evening. Lovell with some more negroes came to Fort Wayne over the Wabash. Upon his arrival here Lovell picked up a coat, overcoat and hat belonging to Conductor Albert Holtz. Tuesday morning he tried to tell Judge Keer that he picked up the articles through mistake in the hurry of dismounting. His story was too weak, however, and he consequently drew $10 and costs and ninety days on the state farm.

Police Notes.
Dan Huntington and John Mitchell, drunks, were ordered discharged. Robert Boyne, who has been a countless number of times in police court on drunk charges, was given 35 and costs. Harvey Slater, arrested on a larceny charge, testified in a rather unbecoming manner and was given until December 1, to get collected. The case against Roy Pollack was continued until November 27.

Sent to Bucyrus.
Charles Sullivan, alias Ward Bowsher, was sent back to Bucyrus to answer a forgery charge. The boy was an inmate of the Mansfield, O., reformatory. His identification was directly due to Detective Sergeant Brennan's Bertillon system.

BRITISH HOLD THEIR GROUND

fighting through the streets. The battle continued here today. The fight for Bourlon wood and village will long be remembered as one of the most bitterly contested and sanguinary yet fought along the British front in France. American officers visiting the Cambrai sector have been thrilled at this renewal of old-time warfare and with one accord say: "That's the kind of fighting American troops would like to be in, for you are in the open where you can get at the enemy with cold steel."

The British have dug tenaciously to Bourlon wood, defended partly by tanks which have taken positions at advantageous locations from which they can work their guns. Fontaine Notre Dame was being hard pressed by the British at latest reports. Throughout yesterday this hamlet remained unmolested for it in no way hampered the operations about Bourlon wood.

In a certain British casualty clearing station on the Cambrai front there has been working for several days a well known New York surgeon who belongs to the American medical corps and volunteered his services for the present battle. Most of his work has been done among the German prisoners who have come to look upon this big, cheerful officer as almost superhuman because of several remarkable operations he has performed.

The Germans all swear by the "big American" and treat his with the utmost deference. It fell to the lot of this surgeon to operate upon a German who had left the Russian front only 36 hours before. He was among the reinforcements rushed from the east. It took him 24 hours to get into the battle here. On the twelfth and thirteenth he was a prisoner in a British clearing station.

GERMAN ATTACK REPULSED.

London, Nov. 27.—British troops have repulsed a German counter-attack at the northeast corner of Bourlon wood, west of Cambrai, according to an official report today from Field Marshal Haig.

The announcement follows: "During the night the Germans undertook another counter-attack against our position in the northeast corner of Bourlon wood. The attack was repulsed.

"There is nothing of special interest to report on the remainder of the front. The weather is stormy and wet."

COLUMBIA CITY MAN SUDDENLY DISAPPEARS

Frank Smith Last Seen Saturday Evening at 6:40 O'clock.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 27.—Frank Smith, a well known young man of this city, has mysteriously disappeared from his home. He was seen last at 6:40 o'clock Sunday evening and whether he has committed suicide or has left for parts unknown is causing his relatives and friends no little concern.

Smith came to Columbia City about a year ago from a farm south of here and started a garage. He sold the garage three weeks ago and since that time has been employed at the Ford agency. Last Saturday he took a day off to collect some bills due him. His wife had spent the day in the country. He was seen at 6:40 o'clock Saturday evening, but after that hour no trace of him can be found.

Smith had worried some because of a number of debts which he owed. His indebtedness, however, was not great and he could easily have taken care of them. He has a brother living in St. Gene, Florida, and it may be that he is on his way to that city.

Hotel to Change Hands.
Edward Reed, of Fort Wayne, has closed a deal for the New Clugston hotel here. He has leased the building from David B. Clugston for a period of five years and intends to make a number of improvements. He will take possession December 5. Ben M. Warren, who has been operating the hotel, will move to his farm north of town.

AMERICAN HOMES OVERHEATED.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Declaring American homes are overheated, the fuel administration today urged all householders to maintain a temperature of not more than 68 degrees, recommended by eminent American physicians. With that temperature the saving in coal will go far toward meeting the enormous war demand for fuel, officials announced.

SOME LEADING ISSUES SHOW EARLY STRENGTH

Coppers, Motors and Equipments Have Good Opening in Market.

New York, Nov. 27.—Coppers, motor and equipments were the outstanding features of today's early dealings on the stock exchange, such issues as American Smelting, Baldwin Locomotive, Chrysler, Steel, General Motors and Studebaker recording gains of one to two points. Tobacco, Shippings and minor specialties also advanced substantially but rails manifested further irregularity. Liberty bonds were virtually unchanged.

Rails became distinctly heavy soon after the opening, suggesting a renewal of liquidation in that quarter. Equipments, shippings and tobacco forfeited much of their early advantage with motors, but a few specialties, notably leather and paper issues, responded to the activity of the bulls.

GENERAL ELECTRIC HIGH OFFICIALS HERE

G. E. Emmons and F. C. Pratt Come to Talk Business With Officials.

Vice-President G. E. Emmons, in charge of the manufacturing, and F. C. Pratt, assistant to the president of the General Electric company, are in the city to meet Manager F. S. Huntington and other officials of the local plant in the discussion of business. The visitors reside in Schenectady and they came here this morning.

MAY HAVE REGIMENTAL BAND.
General Electric Organization Considering Proposition.

The General Electric works here may join the Indiana State Militia company now forming in Fort Wayne. Major John E. Miller, who is organizing the companies, attended the rehearsal of the band last night and proposed to take them in the companies in their entirety and the proposition is being considered with prospects of the band accepting the proposition. The G. E. band now has a membership campaign in progress and will enlarge to at least fifty-five members. At the rehearsal last night the expansion was decided upon and a number of applications were filed. The information concerning the rehearsal was not given much publicity until too late for good results and there were not very many of the members present. It was held in Building No. 19, whereas the understanding was that it was to be held in the usual meeting place, which last night was used for other purposes. The band has arranged to give another night at the Elks' Temple, Saturday night, December 8.

TRACKS BLOCKED AT BUGO.
Wreck Holds Back Wash Passenger Train Four Hours.

A wreck, which in itself was insignificant affair, blocked the Wash tracks at Bugo, a mile west of Fort Wayne, several hours this morning. A car in a westbound freight train had its trucks to break and throw the car off in such a position that it was hard to get at to throw aside and clear the tracks. The wreck car from Penn was unharmed, but was late in arriving, and the Pennsylvania car was delayed. The latter, however, reached the scene just a moment after the Wash passenger arrived and was not needed. West-bound passenger train No. 2 was held four hours by the wreck and east-bound train No. 3 was delayed three hours. Nobody was hurt.

DINING AND TALKING.

For Members of Public Speaking Extension Course at Mills.

Practical experience in public speaking will be combined with good things to eat at a Thanksgiving banquet of the members of the Indiana University Extension Course in Public Speaking to be held at the Wayne Knit club house of the Wayne Knitting mills at 6 o'clock tomorrow evening.

Miss Irene Malloy will act as toastmistress at the spread and will call for toasts from many of the forty persons who are to be present.

As many of the class members are from other industrial concerns of the city, the banquet offers promises to be a "representative gathering" and toasts of all natures are expected.

The following students are to make brief toasts: E. A. Frank, St. Paul's school; Miss Dick and H. J. Herbst, Wayne Knitting mills; L. W. Duncan and W. H. Suenie, Miss Evelyn Archibald, Griffin, Hanna street school; Miss Gertrude Pessell, Franklin school; Earl W. Johns, Mossman-Larnelle company; Geo. B. Jensen, Pennsylvania company; and Lawrence Criswell, of the Edison Lamp works.

EMBARGO HAS BEEN LIFTED.

Less Than Carload Freight Now Received by Pennsy.

Beginning this morning the local Pennsylvania freight transfer house is receiving less than carload lots of freight and distributing it in the customary manner. The embargo was placed on this business three weeks ago and has been in force since until today.

Frank J. Niehter, Pennsylvania motive power inspector of the Pennsylvania northwest system, has returned to the office after four weeks, covering special work at Alliance, Pittsburgh, Rochester and Conway for the company.

TAKES POSITION IN OHIO.

Leo G. Bines Will Resign at General Electric.

Tomorrow will witness the close of service at the General Electric works of Leo G. Bines. Friday he will leave for Newton, Iowa, where he will take a position in the small motor department of the Maytag, Nash Machine company. Mr. Bines has been employed at the General Electric works about seven years and for the past two or three years has been employed in the small motor department. He was formerly engaged in office work.

MACHINIST RUN DOWN.

As he was returning home from work on a bicycle last evening A. C. Haviland, machinist in the Pennsylvania old car machine shop, was struck by an automobile at the intersection of Main and Harrison streets but escaped with minor injuries. The wheel was totally demolished. The accident was practically unavoidable for as he was riding north on Harrison street, Haviland had no view of the automobile which was approaching from the west on Main.

The accident has not prevented Haviland's return to work and the injuries required but little medical attention.

REORGANIZED LEAGUE.

The Bowling league of the G. E. & I. offices has passed out of existence and in its place is a new league called Engines, Cars, Caboose and Rails. The dissolution of the old league and organization of the new one was brought about through the resignation of Ben Zern, a clerk in the trainmaster's office, and his retirement from the league. The new league starts out afresh, the old scores having been wiped out. The teams in it are as follows: Engines, J. C. Burke and J. H. Lauer; Cars, A. J. Getz and W. J. Kallbelsch; Caboose, W. J. Ackerman and S. C. Klotz; and Rails, R. Metz and Dr. F. M. Towles. The first game will be played tonight at the Academy alleys, the contesting teams being the Engines vs. the Caboose, and the Cars vs. the Rails.

IS NOW A SHARPSHOOTER.

E. M. Meyers, formerly employed in the signal department of the Pennsylvania, and now serving Uncle Sam, in the engineering corps stationed at Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill., has become a sharpshooter. In a letter to his former associates he writes that he enjoys shooting and also enclosed his shooting record in his last practice, which places him among the top notchers of his company.

Following is his latest record: 33 out of a possible 100 at 100 yards and 43 out of a possible 100 at 200 yards.

TO ARTIC FOR POULTRY.

Evidently the farmers in the vicinity of Artic, Ind., a short distance east of Fort Wayne, had not heard of the rise in poultry, for some of the Wash shippers, including being Machinists Michael Quinn, Michael Hausbach and Thomas Hayes, went out there this morning and laid in a Thanksgiving supply. They bought turkeys, ducks and chickens at prices lower than are the prevailing prices in this city.

MOVING INTO NEW HOME.

Henry Lenz, who sold his home on Wall street some time ago to the General Electric works, when the latter sought ground for the big factory buildings now located there, yesterday purchased a new home on Thompson avenue and is today moving his family into it. Mr. Lenz is the head packer in the shipping department of the General Electric works and has been employed there a number of years.

CUTS HANDS SEVERELY.

A. J. Delagrangue, employed as a carpenter by the Pennsylvania, cut his left hand severely while operating a saw at the big shop this morning. Mr. Delagrangue was in the act of trimming a piece of lumber when he struck a knot, jerking his hand into the saw. He was given first aid, and later taken to the office of the company surgeon, Dr. Bud Van Swearingen.

HENRY HERBST RETURNS.

Henry Herbst, vice-president and general manager of the Thieme Brothers Silk mills, has returned from a business trip to New York. Among Mr. Herbst's worries which he brought back with him is a new long dress. An attempt will be made to display the article in a downtown window within a short time.

WILL INSTALL AIR BRAKE RACKS.

OFF WITH SORE EYES.

L. J. Krantz, electric welder at the Pennsylvania roundhouse, is off duty nursing injured eyes, the result of burns. Mr. Krantz will be incapacitated for some time to some as his eyes are in a very bad condition at the present time.

HERE FROM LORAINE.

John Kowalski, a former resident of this city, who removed to Lorraine, O., some time ago, is here visiting with his brother-in-law, Roman Marek, of 1310 John street. Mr. Kowalski is accompanied by his wife.

The cause of his joy is the arrival at his home of a fine baby daughter last night. Mr. Roudot says he will make a nurse of her and take her to France, his native country, for Red Cross work. A son preceded the young lady, making the family consist of parents and two children.

AT THE MAJESTIC

"One Girl's Experience," Thanksgiving Matinee and Night.

A story of a poor girl that had a hard struggle to get along but finally succeeds and made good. A well acted drama that every mother, father, daughter and son should see, as good as any sermon, a play that will make millions talk. Its fascinating truths disclose the industrial reasons that start so many girls on the road to the brothel. Poverty, sickness and dirt—all caused by insufficient pay for honest work—constitute the home and the environment of many ignorant and innocent girls, and they are soon made aware that there is a way—by which they can get a share of the world's one standard treasure—money. The first act shows that it is justice and not charity which decent girls of submerg society need in the first place; plain ordinary justice to girls and women who are willing and eager to do honest work for honest pay.

This great play will appear at the Majestic, Thursday, Matinee and night. Seats now selling.

Patterson-Fletcher's entire display windows are given to showing fur and fur-trimmed overcoats.

AT THE PALACE

A SOUND NUT.

Johnny O'Connor is a nut with an individual flavor. He's staging some of the funniest eccentric comedy at the New Palace this week in his skit, "Hired and Fired," with Frank Dixon, that local vaudeville audiences ever have enjoyed.

The bill of which the skit is one of the bright lights, is a fancy one. The American comedy four in some songs and some rough and ready comedy; "The Asoria and company of whirlwind dancers in a group of sensational and graceful numbers; Miss Fremont Benton and company in the farce comedy Handkerchief No. 15; Eddie DeNoyer and Rosa Danie in a hedge lodge of talk, song and dance. At the Western Inn; Aerial Mitchell in a thrilling revolving ladder stunt, and the Buch Brothers in a trampoline comedy are some of the bright spots on the program.

PAST WEEK BRINGS ADVANTAGE TO ALLIES

BAKER'S REVIEW OF WAR SITUATION HAS ENCOURAGING TONE

On the West Front the Allies Made a Vital Gain and Developed a New
and Important Strategy.

ITALIANS HAVE HELD BACK INVADERS

Washington, Nov. 27.—"The week just closed has been one very favorable to the allies' arms," says the war department official communique issued today. "The success of the British offensive in the region of Cambrai and the steady resistance of the Italians in the face of the repeated attacks of the Austro-German forces are two factors which may be considered as relative elements of one and the same movement."

"It is evident that the enemy took the offensive in Italy, hoping thereby to extricate himself from the increasingly difficult position in which his forces find themselves in the west. The German higher command were apparently confident that in order to save Italy from invasion, such important contingents of French and British troops would be detached from the western front as to render any further allied offensives in this theater impossible. Though the French and British both have dispatched large contingents to Italy, this has in no way hampered the continuance of their offensive operations."

"The strategic of the enemy forces, the slow, yet relentless sapping of his main power by continued and sudden offensive thrusts, which must eventually result in the softening of his line in the west. This is the ultimate objective of the series of intensive offensives so successfully pursued by the allies during the past six months, and is even more important than the gain of terrain."

"The military situation is dominated by the spectacular success gained by the British in their thrust towards Cambrai. By adopting new tactical methods, by evolving a strategy daringly conceived and brilliantly executed, the British forces have been able to record a greater success when measured by captured territory, than any hitherto achieved by either belligerent in the same space of time along the western front. While seemingly continuing his offensive engagements in Flanders by an intense artillery bombardment in the sector stretching from Ypres to the North sea, Field Marshal Haig was able to make successful his plans for an offensive thrust between the Scarpe river and St. Quentin."

"The usual preliminary artillery preparation was dispensed with. The elements of surprise so essential to victory played a large part in the successes gained. The British, by a preponderant numerical superiority in men and mobile material, by improving the skillful tactical maneuvering of an unusual number of tanks and by co-ordinating with precision the deployment of cavalry made use of these arms to bear the brunt of the encounter. Infantry then was called upon to hold and consolidate the terrain gained. Thus the British were able to record a decided success with very great economy of munitions and slight casualties. Three successive German trenching offensives on a front of six miles, astride the Cambrai-Bapaume road were captured and the Scheldt canal in front of Cambrai was crossed."

"During the first day of the battle dull, dry weather greatly facilitated operations, which began at dawn on Nov. 20. Later bad weather set in and torrential rains accompanied by blizzards of snow held up the attack. The capture of the village of Fontaine Notre Dame, two and three-quarter miles west of Cambrai, marks the present limit of the advance. The British forces while still pressing forward, are meeting with increased resistance. Severe fighting continues and we may expect desperate attempts on the part of the enemy not merely to prevent any further British advance, but to regain, if possible, some of the lost ground."

"Cambrai, the center of very important railroad and canal lines of communication now comes under the immediate fire of British field guns, while the large calibre high velocity and naval guns can readily search out the countryside for miles in the rear, harassing hostile parties and making operations for the enemy difficult. On a front extending approximately thirty-two miles, the attacking forces have penetrated various strong points. The number of prisoners enumerated hitherto is over ten thousand, which exceeds the total British casualties."

"While the battle for Cambrai has resulted in so rapid and sweeping an advantage for the British forces, apparently without extensive preliminary preparation, it must not be forgotten that it was only made possible by the continued pounding of the German lines in Flanders. In the meantime the British have not ceased to keep the enemy busy in the Ypres salient and gains of terrain are noted to the southeast."

"Along the front held by the French forces, the latter have achieved a successful coup d'main south of Havrincourt, Champagne, resulting in the capture of some elements of enemy trenches and the taking of numerous prisoners. Lively artillery duels took place north of the Chemin des Dames and in the Verdun sector where, as for several weeks past, the enemy continued to bombard the French positions in Chaumont wood."

"Americans More Active. In the sector where our troops are training, increased artillery activity is noted. Small detachments, while on patrol duty, have gained some useful experience."

"The Italian armies now completing their reorganization, have been able to withstand the assaults of the numerical superior forces of the Austro-German divisions engaged against them. They have hitherto prevented the further invasion of the Italian plain. The enemy is continuing its efforts to break through. The line of the Piave has held firm. Along the lower Piave, where hostile forces gained a temporary foothold on the right bank of the river they driven off with great loss thus rendering the Italian positions more secure."

"Along the plateau of the Sette Comuni, heavy fighting is going on. The enemy has been successfully contained. In the mountain regions between the headwaters of the Brenta and the Piave defensive operations have been well conducted, and the enemy has been unable to make any further progress. Strategic reserves, strengthened by allied contingents, have been constituted."

Yesterday's sales of anti-tuberculosis seals were 32,160, making the total up to the last mail last night, 47,760.

Last year's record to the same date was 89,000 but the solicitation for the big sales had been started and was well on its way. The solicitation for the big sales begins today. It is believed that the seals will be "stylish" this year beyond any previous year.

So many have "TB" that it might be said to be the plague, but so many have been arming the society for its suppression that it is armed with hundreds of thousands of bullets, each of which nails its "objective."

The society has been gradually encroaching on the big ever since the war began. There were a less number of cases of tuberculosis in Allen county last year per thousand of population than ever before.

But eternal vigilance is the price of success in this battle. Seals spell eternal vigilance.

The society has sent to the city drug stores this year a quantity of seals to be disposed of as far as there is a demand for them. The drug stores are in this way requested to sell what they can and return the balance. As soon as their supply is exhausted they are requested to phone headquarters for more. The society was compelled to send for 25,000 more this morning to keep pace with the increasing demand. It is the fashion to commit no package to the mails or to the express companies, that show no Christmas seals.

BRITISH HOLD THEIR GROUND

And Are Also Boring Their

German Lines.

GERMAN ATTACKS
ALL DRIVEN BACK

Byng's Men Are Still the
Winners in Greatest
Fight of Year.

British Army Headquarters in France, Monday, Nov. 26.—(By The Associated Press.)—British troops, including some from London, last night continued to bore their way forward through the Hindenburg support line west of Meuvres. There was vigorous fighting at close quarters in this region and as a result the British today were in possession of a further section of support trenches 2,000 yards long running east and west just south of Pronville and Inchy-en-Artois. The British advance in the last few days had made this section of the line virtually untenable and the Germans were forced to withdraw when pressed by a new attack.

Fighting was renewed today between Bourlon wood and Cambrai and Fontaine Notre Dame, where the Germans were still installed and continued to work machine guns from roofs and windows. West of here at Bourlon wood Bourlon village the situation remained much as it was last night after the Germans had forced the British out of most of the village in a fierce counter-attack which involved still more furious hand-to-hand

Gen. Kaledines and His Don Cossacks in Control and More Conservatives
Will Soon Have Upper Hand.

KALADINES HAS GOLD AND FOOD SUPPLY

London, Nov. 27.—The Russian revolutionists have made a "ghastly failure" of their attempt at administration according to the Petrograd correspondent of the Morning Post writing under date of Saturday. He adds:

"But behind or beyond all this apparently hopeless chaos the forces which made Russia an empire are not idle and those who know Russian history understood perfectly how matters will end."

"Even as I write, the situation is becoming clear. The elections to the constituent assembly will take place but the constituent assembly will not meet with success for the Bolshevik movement, whatever that movement may really mean, already has damned the constituent assembly."

"Meantime I would call attention to the facts. The vast gold reserve of the Russian empire which was removed from Petrograd to the Kremlin in 1913, was later carried still further into the interior. It is in safe hands."

"General Kaledines, hetman of united Cossackdom, is in secure possession, with trustworthiness and disciplined troops of all arms, of all those regions of European Russia that produced a harvest this year and is rapidly capturing these remaining territories upon which Russia relies for its daily bread."

"A vast union, under the name of the Southeastern union, has been formed. It includes the Don territory, a great part of Little Russia, the lower Volga provinces and Turkistan—the area which feeds all Russia. This union is extending and promises to cover the Siberia corn land."

"Gen. Kaledines, holding the gold reserve and the bread supply, is master of the situation and those he serves will accept dictation neither from Kerensky, Lenin nor anybody else, least of all from Germany."

"The allies may safely admit a bowing acquaintance with the curious individualities thrown up from the depths by internal disturbances, but for intimate friendship and future partnership they must look elsewhere and in the meantime they must wait unconcerned until their old friends appear above the present turmoil."

NEW GOVERNMENT IN CAUCASUS

Washington, Nov. 27.—The American consul at Tiflis today reported establishment of the new government in the Caucasus as a protest against anarchy in Russia. The report contained few details, but indicated that the men in the new movement were of the conservative element and were determined to do what they could to hold back from their part of Russia the waves of disorder. The governing power has been placed in an assembly of thirty-six men.

No direct news comes from Petrograd today, but from Sweden reports were received that indicated radicals have manifested their sympathy for Gen. Kaledines. Conditions in Finland are reported threatened with new complications with the probable renewal of a general strike. The food shortage is becoming more acute.

No special instructions have been sent to Ambassador Francis and it was indicated at the state department that his acts in Petrograd would be governed largely by his own judgment and that even his departure from Petrograd, in case of emergency, would not be a question of instruction from Washington, but one for his own decision.

SMALL FIRE.

The fire department was called to the residence of William Talmage, 121 East Pontiac street, shortly before 10 o'clock Monday night. Sparks from the chimney had ignited the roof, but the damage was slight, amounting to about $15.

RUSSIAN ARMY STARVING AND WILL DISBAND

London, Nov. 27.—The Russian army on the northern front has had no bread for several days, according to reports received in Petrograd and transmitted by the correspondent of the Daily Express, and only two or three days' supplies of army biscuits on hand. The army delegates are reported to have recommended the withdrawal of the troops in order to prevent a general fight with its consequent excesses. Instead of a hundred cars of food arriving daily at the Dvinsk front only twenty have been received. Large numbers of troops being moved to different places have been stopped by the removal of sections of railroad track to prevent their reaching Petrograd

Why Society Women Wash Their Own Hair

They do, not because it is a fad, but because they wish to obtain the greatest possible hair beauty and be sure they are not using anything harmful. They have found that in washing the hair it is never wise to use a makeshift but is always advisable to use a preparation made for shampooing only. Many of our friends say they get the best results from a simple home-made castor oil mixture. You can use this at a cost about three cents a shampoo by getting some castor oil from your druggist, and dissolving a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This makes enough shampoo liquid to apply to all the hair instead of just the top of the head, as with most preparations. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear in the rinsing water. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its lustre and softness will also delight you.—Advertisement.

PIONEER RESIDENT OF MONROEVILLE DEAD

J. E. Pillers, Former Miller and Business Man, Died at Home of Daughter.

Monroeville, Ind., Nov. 27.—J. E. Pillers, age 76, a civil war veteran, died Sunday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Smith Nelson, at Paulding, Ohio. He had been a continual sufferer from heart disease since the close of the war. Mr. Pillers was the first white child born in Madison township.

At the age of two his mother died and his father left him at the home of his grandfather, near Decatur, where he remained with his father until the outbreak of the civil war, when he enlisted at Camp Allen in the Ninth Indiana regiment, Company G, Indiana volunteers, with Captain Hollister in charge. He took part in many engagements of the war and at its close went to the west, where he remained two years, and then returned to the home of his parents, near Leo, where later he was married to Henrietta Bachus. Seven children were born to this union—W. E. Pillers of Angola, L. H. Pillers, Thomas Pillers and Mrs. William R. Alliger of Monroeville, and Mrs. Smith Nelson of Paulding, Ohio. A son and a daughter died in infancy. There are also eleven grandchildren, the great-grandchildren, two half-brothers, William Pillers of near Hartsville, Mich., and one half-sister, Mrs. Jane Mathews of Topeka, Kan., surviving.

After his marriage Mr. Pillers took charge of the old mill at Pos. Some time later he took charge of the old Redelsheimer mill at Monroeville. Later he opened a meat market in Decatur but moved back to Monroeville after seven months where he owned a meat market for several years. He remained in Monroeville ever since, going a few weeks ago to visit his daughter in Paulding where his death occurred. He was a member of the Methodist church and of G. A. R., and was a member of the I. O. O. F. for the last thirty-five years. Funeral services were held here Tuesday afternoon, with the son of his former captain, Rev. Charles Hollister, of near Hunterstown, officiating. The G. A. R. and I. O. O. F. organizations had charge of the funeral. Interment was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

TRYING TO MAKE BOYS IN CAMP DISCONTENTED

U. S. Searches for Source of Pro-German Tale of Christmas Furlough.

Special Dispatch from Our Washington Bureau.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—There will be no general Christmas furlough for the boys in the cantonments and training camps.

Parents and soldiers should adjust their Christmas plans on this basis.

A story, the source of which the war department has been unable to locate, has been widely circulated to the effect that the camps would be virtually vacated during the holidays.

The story said that both officers and men would be given general furlough over Christmas week.

It is believed this story is part of deliberate pro-German propaganda, circulated to boost hopes of both soldier boys and their relatives and friends, with the idea that discontent and dissatisfaction would follow when it developed there would be no Christmas furlough.

The war department will go the limit in attempting to make the Christmas holidays a bright period in training camp life.

Transportation is in itself a barrier to any general furlough plan, as railroads, had the work of transporting men to the camps spread out over several weeks in order that the heavy traffic could be handled. To attempt to handle this soldier traffic two ways—from camp to home and back to camp—during the crowded Christmas week, would be impossible.

Then to attempt a general Christmas furlough would disrupt the entire schedule of training and of movements of troops to France for at least two weeks, at a time when every day is valuable.

On either of these counts the plan is called wholly impossible.

Commanders at the various camps, however, will have authority to grant the greatest possible freedom to the men during the holiday period to enjoy entertainment and Christmas festivities that may be offered by the communities near which the camps are located.

Soldiers whose homes are near the camps in which they are training may be granted leave at the discretion of the camp commanders.

Within the camps themselves Christmas will be observed by special amusements and entertainments, and facilities will be provided for prompt distribution of gifts and delicacies sent to the men.

Every window of Patterson-Fletcher Co. are displaying fur and fur-trimmed overcoats.

ISAAC B. STRAUSS TO ADDRESS COMMITTEE

State Director of Boys' Working Reserve Coming This Evening.

Isaac B. Strauss, state director of the boys working reserve, will address members of the local executive committee in charge of the reserve at eight o'clock Thursday evening. The principal theme of the meeting will be the awarding of the service medals. A date for the awarding will be set and the number to be given out will also be decided upon. The service medal is really desirable as it carries with it considerable honor, no one being enabled to obtain it unless they have completed a certain amount of reserve work.

Acting directly in connection with the movement, Superintendent Himelick has appointed Principal L. Ward, of the high school, as a committee of one to complete a list of all high school boys enrolled in the reserve and to arrange a course wherein they will be enabled to get out of school earlier than usual with the same amount of credits, giving them more time to do farm or other work. The boys working reserve has been enthusiastically received by almost all high school boys and the enrollment so far has been good.

Fur and fur trimmed overcoats shown in all of Patterson-Fletcher's show windows.

TO MAKE MILK SUPPLY OF INDIANA PURE AND SAFE

New Regulations Will Be in Force in State After First of Year.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 23.—New regulations to make the milk supply as safe and pure as is the supply in any state will be in force January 1, 1918, and will be rigidly enforced by health officers, according to an announcement by Dr. J. N. Hurty, state health commissioner. According to two decisions of the state supreme court, these rules, when promulgated, will have all the force of laws. The milk grades adopted in the rules are those approved by the national milk standards committee.

Health officers estimate that 2,000 lives would be saved, if it were possible to obtain an absolute pure milk supply in Indiana for one year. This estimate is based on the fact that about 4,000 infants die annually in Indiana of intestinal disorders and state officials assert that 80 per cent of this trouble is due to polluted milk.

"If only ten children were killed in the state annually by polluted milk," said Dr. Hurty, "it would be worth while to put forth strenuous efforts to secure pure milk and save that number of lives. The Indiana law declares that milk containing visible dirt is unlawful and condemned. Any health officer finding dirt in milk, should seize the same, take it before a justice and lay accusation against the person who sold the milk. This visible dirt is usually small particles of manure, carrying millions of purefaction and fermenting germs."

Dr. Hurty urges that all health officers familiarize themselves with the new regulations.

Since the United States entered the war against Germany 470 of the 1,200 Americans who were living in that country March 1 have left, either for home or for neutral countries. More than half of those remaining live in Berlin. It is said that Americans are not molested by German officials, being subjected to no more restrictions than neutrals.

REMEMBER THE CHRISTMAS SEALS.

Never was there a time when the warfare against the white plague had need of stronger support than now. There will be increased draft against the resources of the anti-tuberculosis societies everywhere as the war goes on. There must be adequate means with which to meet it.

In a multitude of activities that relate to civic duties in the war—things that appear to relate more intimately to the actual prosecution of the war itself—the claims and the necessities of the anti-tuberculosis movement may be slighted and in some cases overlooked altogether. This would work a serious injury to a great labor that is just as essential as any other war work and in some of its aspects vital to the future welfare of men in the army and their families at home.

The annual campaign for the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals is now on. For a number of years Fort Wayne has specially distinguished herself by the generous measure of her support and it is hoped that, notwithstanding the great sums that have been contributed here to other imperative concerns since war was declared, this city will not relax its support of the war against the white plague. It has been the experience of the allies of America in the war that trench life greatly promotes the ravages of tuberculosis. France, Great Britain and Canada specially report great inroads of the scourge among their men. The return of those so afflicted from the front creates a new and large field of work for the anti-tuberculosis organizations.

While it is hoped and believed that the plans evolved for sanitation in the cantonments here and in the camps and trenches on the other side, together with the greatest medical organization and the most thorough preparations for proper feeding that ever have marked the care of large armies by any nation will have the effect of keeping the invasions of the white plague among our troops less serious than among the troops of any other country, it cannot be questioned that many of the soldiers of America will be stricken with the disease. They must be cared for when they are sent home. To these must be added that increase of cases which here at home will come as one of the consequences of war. Altogether, there will be more for the anti-tuberculosis agencies to do than ever before.

The purchase of the Red Cross Christmas seals should be more extensive this year than at any time heretofore. Everybody ought to buy them and use them.

AFTER THE PROFITEERS.

Federal regulation of food by authority of statute appears to have failed of gaining the respect of some of the profiteers. It is announced from Washington that National Food Administrator Hoover is preparing to inaugurate measures that will improve the situation.

Under the law passed last summer by congress the dealers who do not keep the statute may be prosecuted. The penalties of conviction are severe. Director Hoover is said to be getting ready to start prosecutions and, from what is known of Hoover, it may be taken for granted that appeal to the law in behalf of the national safety and the public welfare will be no more nominal recourse designed to bluff the speculators and profiteers, but a determined purpose to correct evil and punish those who perpetrate it.

Federal intervention in private business is a strange proceeding in this country, save in the instances of the great trusts and combines that now and then have been prosecuted.

The ordinary channels of merchandising have had uninterrupted courses and no attention has been paid to what they did or the fashion they did it. Now comes a critical time. The nation is in a great war whereof the outcome depends vitally upon the way in which we produce, conserve and distribute our food supplies both for our own use and for the use of our allies, whose success or failure in the war completely invests our own destiny in the conflict. The food statutes are, purposed solely with a view to enhancing and maintaining our national strength for the struggle. That is all there is to the food conservation program and the laws enacted to secure it.

Certain factors in our business life do not yet understand that this war is a fight for national existence and not a field day for extortion and rapacity. Profiteering and conservation do not mean the same thing, strange as this may appear to the profiteers. To make this clear, to teach the wholesome lesson that the extremity of the people is not the opportunity of the predatory, to breed in the popular mind that the law is for the good of all and not the joke of lawmakers, and to establish now and to keep upmost that the government is not engaged in the sorry business of asking the people to deny and save and give that the government may be strong for its task while it permits them to be plucked by the rapacious, it may be necessary for Mr. Hoover to make drastic examples. Mr. Hoover will belie his whole good repute if he does not do just that if only that will serve.

If this war is to be won it will be won by the whole people working together. They cannot work together and they will not if the predatory elements are given field to scourge the people with extortion and rapacity. Not many prosecutions will be needed if the first of them are of the right sort and proper spirit to chasten the speculators and profiteers.

MAY DECLARE WAR AGAIN.

It probably adds nothing to the force of the argument that "Gumshoe Bill," of Missouri, acquiesces in it, but it nevertheless is true that certain considerations of the war will be improved by declarations of belligerency against Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria. Normally we are at peace with those nations, yet actually at war with them. They can have no interest in and execute no act of the war that is not hostile to the American cause. They are fighting America's allies and sooner or later their soldiers will be fighting American soldiers. It is a situation of singular anomalies, as has been frequently pointed out.

There are perhaps better reasons here at home for making declarations of war against the allies of Germany. The country is harboring hundreds of thousands of subjects of Austria-Hungary and many thousands of subjects of Bulgaria. These ought to be regarded as enemy aliens quite as readily as are the unaturalized Germans in this country. There is a good deal of nonsense in barring from certain prescribed zones men of German blood and birth, while men of other nationalities who are in all respects as essentially enemy aliens are permitted to go and come as they please.

The war we are in is with Germany and with Germany's allies. What advantages one of them advantages them all in common and what weakens one one weakens them all together. The hope that by avoiding an actual break with Austria and Bulgaria there might be some political gain that in the outcome would cripple Germany and make her allies more anxious for peace, promises to have no realization. Germany completely dominates her allies and will until she herself has been beaten. They dare not detach themselves. They ought to be treated by America as the belligerents that they are.

There should be no patience with those who scoff at and defy the regulations purposed to conserve food, but there should be some spirit of toleration for those who do not yet know just how to make the saving. The most abundantly supplied and the most wasteful people on earth with their foodstuffs, Americans have never before felt the tooth of necessity. Most of them do not yet feel it and a great number of them do not believe they ever will feel it. Those who are not disposed to take the admonitions of the food administration seriously will know their mistake later. It is more than the work of a day, however, to teach the people of this country that they can live better on less than is their wont, but the lesson will get home in due time.

THE PROMISE OF RUSSIAN PEACE

When our American troops started for the front we fed them every four hours for forty-eight hours. They came in cold and tired and thirsty. We had six hundred loaves of bread for them, twelve cases of jam with twenty-four cans in a case, and three hundred pounds of coffee. We had two chooses, weighing one hundred and eighty pounds each. We took a location on the Quai, set up stoves, a boiler and served real American coffee. We gave the coffee away. For sandwiches we charged twenty-five cents. They cost us thirty-four cents. I went thirty-six hours on four slices of bread and a coffee.

Then I started off with the men—artillery, they were. We left at 8 p. m., on a Friday. Twenty-nine of us were in a boxcar with a bale of hay. When the wire came off the hay we needed a gas mask for the dust that shook out. There wasn't room for all to sleep. We were saddlers, shoers, mechanics, the ninth section of a battery.

We woke to a foggy morning. The men thought they were on the way to Paris. But we had come to the city of —, in a corner of France. We took the guns off the wagon, and marched seventeen kilometers to the town of —. We slept that night in the loft of a barn. A hen had been billeted there before us, and by morning I had a ring of white welts around my ankle from lice. We lived there for three days with those visitors that didn't appear on the roll-call. And for nine days we never took our clothes off.

The boys were advised to slip off their revolvers. We rented a kitchen as a storeroom for the guns. In renting that kitchen I wore out my twenty-two words of French, but we got the kitchen and slept there in the room with the guns. We stayed five days in the place with the main horse line of the battery. The horses had large appetites and ate up caissons and any other leather stuff. One man came in and reported with his overcoat in rags. He said he was sorry, but his horse had got hungry in the night.

I thought I would go further up, so I got a horse. He was thin. I give you that for background, so you will be sympathetic to my next. The orders were to ride bareback, and I had to ride him bareback razzorback. For the next two days I ate my meals standing up.

Then I went to the brigade commander, and he let me go to the front. We came to the first village this side of the border. It was full of men billeted. I said I was tired enough to give seven francs for a bed. An old woman gave me a room in a house with the bed and blown off. She was caretaker. The family had fled. She seemed to feel this way about it: "I'm about at the end of the line, anyhow, and I'll stay by the stuff."

Two colonels walked me up to the dugouts, and that was where I parted friendship with my long overcoat. It slipped mud very step.

Thirty men were in the dugout in field air. The Germans were one hundred yards away. In between looked like a lot of country anywhere. Shells were coming in casually, landing in a field about one hundred yards away. When we came back along the communication trench we found the ceiling of it (what we call the sleeper in a mine) shot through with a shell.

We went to bed at six-fifteen. Life is a blank after the active hours.

In the morning we dug emplacements for the guns. We were supposed to wait till the four guns were dug in. But when the first gun was needed the boys couldn't wait to get the rest ready. They had to let the Boches know they had come. At 4 p. m. on October 24 they sent the first shell fired by an American battery from an American-dug emplacement. It was Battery — of the — field artillery.

"Here's the first shot we're handing to the Germans," they said, and they all agreed it had to kill at least thirty-six men.

One man said our aim was bad. "In about fifteen minutes," he claimed, "you'll see a German pop up over the hill asking, 'Did we throw them something?'"

We sent four shrapnel for range, and took the distance at six thousand yards.

"Minus five to the left, same range, same elevation," came back on the telephone, and then:

"She's on her way."
They gave me the case of the first shell. I carried it on my belt, where it kept rubbing the spine. The boys fired five rounds before supper. They used French Seventy-fives.

"Mark all your data and go home," was the order, and they chatted the gun shield.

Another battery fired sooner than we did, but not from an American-dug emplacement. They fired from an orchard. The case of that shell went to President Wilson.

The purpose of my trip was observation and laying out an organization for Y. M. C. A. work. So I went with a papoose containing a tooth brush, socks and underwear. But I managed to smuggle in writing paper and games.

I came back by mule team, walked to —, flagged a Ford for the seven kilometers to —, and so down to Paris.

While we were at the front the soldiers spent their spare time in getting up a good American meal in their minds—beefsteak, peas, and crisp celery. Some of the fellows slept in old dugouts, but most preferred pup tents. They liked the experience.

"This is Jake," they said.
For Red Triangle work with them we are using two Fords, a motorcycle, and a truck. In the base towns we are putting a double-walled tent and a fire so they will have a warm place to sit and write. We shall sell them socks, chocolate, malted milk, and coffee. For our men at the front we will carry stuff in a Ford as far as we can get, and then go the rest of the way to the emplacement on foot. We are starting work with five Red Triangle men. We shall visit the outpost dressing stations and bring them supplies. Three of the men working at the front are Henry Crane, the nephew of the Rev. Frank Crane the son of Dr. Robert Speer, and Shaw, the old Columbia center rush.

This experience in the trenches has meant a lot to two armies. It has cheered up the French, and it has solemnized our men.

MANY MARRIED MEN MUST SERVE IN THE ARMIES OF LIBERTY

By GILSON GARDNER.

The new draft regulations will not apply to men now in the cantonments. The regulations apply only to candidates for the second selective service army about to be raised.

"The men who have been selected are selected," said Colonel Gullion of the provost marshal general's office. "They are members of the first selective draft army. These new regulations have nothing to do with them. It makes no difference if some of them would have escaped under the new regulations. These matters cannot be forever litigated. Therefore, the new regulations will not be applied to old cases."

The new regulations appear to make it almost impossible for a married man to serve.

"I predict," said Colonel Gullion, "that there will be a good many married men in this second army. It has been suggested that the first classification will number two million men, and that the army will be mostly recruited from class one. Even if this were true, there are married men in class one. The married man who does not actually support his family is subject to draft. A married man dependent on his wife is among those to be first called on. Married men not usefully engaged, but living on incomes acquired independently of their labor, also are in class one.

"Class two begins to take in married men very quickly. It includes cases in which the wife or children are not mainly dependent on the man's labor for support, because of other sources outside the wife's earning power, also the man whose wife earns nearly as much as he, by special work she would have a prospect of continuing if the husband left her. In other words, the husband of a business woman earning a good income is in class two, and likely to be called.

"Only when a man has a wife or children mainly dependent on his labor for support, does he get into class four, far from conscription."

UMBRELLA CARRYING ANTS FOUND IN MEXICO

In Mexico there is a variety of ants that carry little green umbrellas, made from bits of leaves, to protect their bodies from the fierce tropical sun. Sometimes, writes a contributor who has lived in the turbulent republic across the Rio Grande, I have seen two ants walking together while one politely carried the umbrella over the two. At other times, she says, I have seen them, when going in opposite directions, stop and salute each other before they passed on.—Youth's Companion.

EXPOSE PLOTTERS IS APPEAL OF PATRIOTS

National Committee of Patriotic Societies Goes to the People.

Washington, Nov. 27.--"Organize a local chapter of the War Ananias club."

nominate for membership every man and woman in your community who is circulating malicious rumors and repeating false reports that tend to cast suspicion and distrust upon our government and thus hamper the successful prosecution of the war.

This is the message today being sent out by the national committee of patriotic societies through its honorary chairman, Lieut. Gen. S. B. M. Young and William Mather Lewis, executive secretary, to the loyal citizens of every city and village in the United States.

It further suggests that a membership list be posted on some conspicuous corner, and that the stories and names of their narrators be sent to the local newspapers and to the headquarters of the national committee in Washington.

Tales from Ali Quarters.
"Americans boast of a sense of humor and a lack of gullibility which should make them proof against the German inspired lies now being so persistently circulated," the committee says. "From every corner of the country come tales that prominent government officials have been shot as spies, at Fort Leavenworth that our soldiers at the cantonments must buy their own food or starve to death; that the government officials are about to raid home kitchens and commandeer the food."

"It is whispered about that an American battleship has been sunk with all on board and that the navy department is suppressing the news; that hundreds of wounded American soldiers have been stealthily landed in New York; that the execution of soldiers is part of the daily routine in our camps."

"Even the banks do not escape, but are about to be robbed by no less a personage than Uncle Sam."

"High Time to Act."
"It is high time that Americans who lay claim to the slightest patriotism should challenge the truthfulness of these tales, and nail lies so hard that they will not again be repeated. Every member of the war Ananias club is sticking a knife into the back of some American soldier. Every American who is afraid to drag a member of this traitorous organization into the light of public condemnation should drape a yellow emblem over his door."

"The congenial liar and the pernicious gossip are two of the Kaiser's ablest aids in America today. The national committee of patriotic societies calls upon ministers, teachers, labor leaders, politicians, newspapers, editors, and all others who mold public opinion to join in the campaign with other loyal citizens everywhere to put these pests where they belong. Russia has been duped by this form of German kultur; Italy has been stung by it, the natural countries of Europe are feeling its poison. Let America awake before it is too late."

AMERICAN GIRL TELLS STORY OF CAPTIVITY

Detained on Farm in Germany, the Victim of Army Officers.

Ayer, Mass., Nov. 27.--Indignities inflicted upon a 19-year-old American girl in Germany are described in a letter given out by the authorities at Camp Devane.

The letter was written to her brother, a private in the national army here, who turned the communication over to his superior officers to obtain his sister's release.

The man is of German descent, and came from New Hampshire. Before the outbreak of the war his mother went to Germany to visit her parents, and has remained there since.

Document Is Hoax.
Six months ago, he says, his sister received an official appearing document from Germany saying that her mother was ill there, and that she should make arrangements to go to see her, if possible. The girl's letter said:

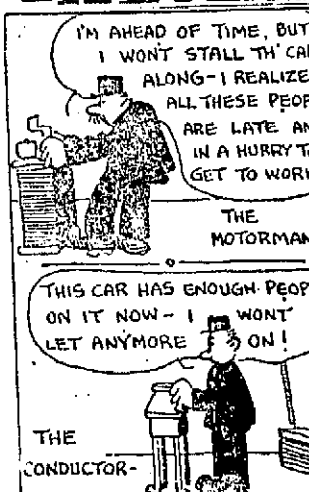

"Mother is well and has not been sick. When I arrived here I found that the whole report of her illness was a hoax. I was taken by the military officials and am now confined at a farm where there are hundreds of other girls and women. This is only one of lots of such places. I am so unhappy. Even the best classes of young girls and women are confined here and you can well imagine how they feel. We are not treated well and the food is horrible and it is even worse considering the conditions we are living under."

Cannot See Mother.
"Officers and men who have won glory in battle spend a month or more furlough here and we are subjected to all sorts of indignities. I am so unhappy that several times I have almost made up my mind to kill myself. Mother was held here for two months sometime ago and now she cannot visit me. I hope you will try to do something in America and help me."

The message, written on a piece of a paper, ended with a hastily written postscript that she must hurry to smuggle the note out.

When the private was told that nothing could be done to help his sister he at once applied for a transfer to the next unit sailing for the battle front.

Indianapolis, Nov. 26.—That pro-German yarn about "60,000 allied doctors killed in the war" has shimmered down to facts and records, and it is found that the total of doctors killed with the British forces in three years and two months of active service, is 263, out of 12,000 engaged, and the other armies have lost in the same ratio.

American newspapers, and even the Journal of the American Medical Society, thoughtlessly and foolishly printed horror stories circulated by the pro-German press agencies in this country, falsely telling the people that 420 doctors were killed in one day, and that the average "expectancy" of life for the doctor in active service was twenty-one days.

Here, according to the pro-German press service, more doctors were "killed in one day" than actually were lost by the British in three years and two months of fighting.

This boche bosh did not deter Indiana doctors from offering their services, nor did it effect the wives and women folk of the patriotic physicians of America, though it was evidently the purpose of the enemy to demoralize the women and hamper the United States government in its quest for surgeons for the army.

Dr. Charles P. Emerson of the Indiana state council of defense in calling attention to the falsehoods told by the pro-German press agencies, says that the remarkable story of the high mortality among doctors is a typical pro-German absurdity, one of many yarns Americans must guard against.

Dr. Emerson calls attention also to the fact that many physicians who have accepted commissions for military duty have made the mistake of selling their practices, their autos, breaking up their households and abandoning their ordinary manner of living immediately on accepting their commissions, later finding they must wait several weeks or months before being called on to report for service. He urges doctors to go on with their ordinary affairs until notified to report. The government gives ample notice in its order to report.

GREAT CROPS OF EVERY FOODSTUFF BUT WHEAT

World's Shortage is About 15 Per Cent. Outside of Central Powers.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—Bumper world crops of corn, oats, potatoes, rice, sugar beets and tobacco for this year are shown by estimates compiled by the International Institute of Agriculture at Rome, made public by the department of agriculture. Wheat, rye, barley and flaxseed, however, have fallen below the five year average of production from 1911 to 1915.

The production of wheat in seventeen countries, not including the central powers, will be 1,868,000,000 bushels, 85.6 per cent of the five year average. Corn raised will amount to 3,312,000,000 bushels, which is 14.16 per cent greater than the average production for the last five years. Other crops are estimated as follows:

Rye, 147,000,000 bushels, 92.2 per cent.
Barley, 587,000,000 bushels, 96 per cent.
Oats, 2,682,000,000 bushels, 113.9 per cent.
Rice, 70,000,000 bushels, 115.5 per cent.

Flaxseed, 38,000,000 bushels, 69.8 per cent.
Potatoes, 719,000,000 bushels, 113.4 per cent.
Sugar beets, 10,000,000 bushels short tons, 106.6 per cent.

Tobacco, 1,186,000,000 pounds, 120.5 per cent.

Smokers rather suspect the tobacco trust's excess profits taxes also, with perhaps some more private profits on the side.

The retailer is also coming in for his share of suspicion.

Now if it is true that the tobacco trust or the retailer are covering an increased profit with the exorbitant "war tax," they are indulging in a peculiarly odious form of profiteering. Not only are they taking advantage of the war to gouge the people, but are making the war unpopular by creating the impression that the war taxes are unreasonable.

Here is an extract from a letter received by Uncle Sam from the wife of a marine in France:

"My husband is with the marine corps somewhere in France, and since his arrival in France I have endeavored to keep a small supply of cigars going to him every few weeks. Just a month ago the business houses of this town posted placards announcing the price of cigars and cigarettes going to him every few weeks to be advanced on account of the war tax. At that time some grades of cigars were raised 1 cent per package, others 2 cents per package. The grade I had purchased had been raised from 10 cents per package to 12 cents. Two weeks ago I bought some at that price. Now just yesterday, I went to the same store and was advised they are now 13 cents per package—that the last shipment, of which they were some, demanded a selling price of 13 cents on account of war tax.

"To us, whose husbands or sons are at the front, and to whom we have endeavored to give a little homey pleasure by sending them their favorite brand of smoke, this weekly raise of prices, account the ever handy excuse 'war tax,' works a hardship to some extent."

The price changes she referred to

are typical of the changes in all lines of tobacco products.

Before the recent increases one popular brand of cigarettes, selling at 10 cents for a package of 20, was sold to the retailer for 7.3 cents a pack, netting him a profit of 2.2 cents per package.

Now the same package of cigarettes sells for 13 cents, although the war taxes increased only one cent per package. The increased war tax is only 50 cents per thousand on cigarettes of this grade, which figures out one cent on a package of 20.

But today the retailer is making only .3 of a cent more per package than when the package sold for 10 cents. The balance of the increase is either gobbled by the tobacco trust, or is due to increased prices of raw material or cost of production.

The tobacco trust now composed of a number of ostensibly "competing" companies—first raised the price of this cigarette to 8.9 cents a package. The retailer advanced the price to 12 cents and increased his profit to 3.1 cents a package.

A little later the trust raised the price to 10.5 cents a package, and the retailer raised his price to 13 cents. However, his profit decreased to 2.5 cents per package.

Wherever the money goes, it is not fair to tell the consumer that the "war tax" is responsible for raising the price of a package of cigarettes three cents, when the tax is only one cent.

HOW ONE KIND OF WAR PROFITEERING INJURES

Tobacco "War Tax" Excuse is Doing Real Damage to American Cause.

(Special Dispatch from Our Washington Bureau.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—Cigar stores are plastered with signs announcing increased prices for tobacco, cigars and cigarettes—"all account of the war"—or rather "the war tax."

There is some grumbling and a good deal of skepticism about the war tax.

How Thin People May Put on Flesh

GREAT DISCOVERY BY EMINENT SPECIALIST

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing the arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness, and it therefore is a real problem to publish herewith a simple prescription which, by correcting faulty metabolism and stimulating the activity of certain sluggish vital organs, quickly produces a marvelous transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing. This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, all quickly disappear, dull eyes become bright, and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

The prescription, which is absolutely harmless, directs you to take before each meal a 5-grain tablet of Bitro-Phosphate, such as you may obtain from D. & N. Pharmacy, Dreier Drug Co., Meyer Bros. Co. or any first class druggist at a trifling cost. Eat all you want, but chew your food thoroughly.

CAUTION:—Although the above prescription is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness it should not, owing to its remarkable flesh-growing properties, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.—Advertisement.

Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $2. and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Easily done.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you would hardly have in them all the curative power that lies in this simple "homemade" cough syrup which takes only a few minutes to prepare.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 65 cents and gives you a pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50.

Tastes pleasant and never spoils. This Pinex and sugar syrup preparation acts right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes that line the throat, chest and bronchial tubes, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, be sure to ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

A MARVELOUS DEMONSTRATION!

The other night at the Majestic the audience was told that during the next number sung by Miss Gardner, the lights would be extinguished, so that those present could not see whether or not Miss Gardner was singing with the instrument. She was so singing as the lights went out, but did not sing a note after that, but immediately left the stage, but so perfect was the reproduction of her voice the audience was at times sure she was singing and only saw how completely it was deceived when the lights were turned on and no Miss Gardner was there. The audience had a hearty laugh at its own expense.

CAMPAIGN FOR NEW MEMBERS

Red Cross Drive Will Start December 17 and Close on the 25th.

MULLER RETURNS FROM CLEVELAND

Those Who Must Stay at Home Can Have Part in Winning War.

Harry Muller, chairman of the Red Cross drive committee for Allen county, has returned from attending a meeting of the American Red Cross, held at the Hotel Stadler, in Cleveland, November 28. William G. Rose, director of the Christmas membership campaign of the Lake division, had charge of the meeting. He stated that this was an important campaign in that it was a campaign not for funds, but for the mobilization of a gigantic civilian army, an army of 15,000,000, to stand behind the fighting army of the United States. He stated further that membership in the Red Cross, that is, enlistment in this army, meant an open declaration of Red Cross principles. The four principal purposes in the Christmas membership drive are:

- 1. To force Germany to realize that the concerted spirit of the American people is back of the American government in this war.
- 2. To spur the morale of our soldiers by pledging to the cause the hearts, minds and money of 15,000,000 Americans back home.
- 3. To bind the wounds of our fighters so that every possible drop of American blood may be saved to strengthen world democracy.
- 4. To link the spirit of Red Cross with the spirit of Christmas, and hasten this righteous spirit that means world peace.

The people who must stay at home are going to have an important part in winning this war but if they do their bit they must do it only through organized effort. This is the way the Red Cross intends to help. If you are not already a member you want to enlist during this drive, and get the button with the little red cross blazed in front.

With the cross in hand look at its four corners and think that each corner stands for one of the four above listed principles, which by this cross will be accomplished.

The membership drive will open December 17 and will close December 25. The campaign is national and the intensive phases start all over this country with the break of dawn on December 17 and ends with the dawn of Christmas morn with "Every American home a Red Cross home." Dean H. P. Almon Abbott, of Trinity church, has just returned from abroad and told of the wonderful good the Red Cross is doing and of the great need for further and stronger efforts. One of the things we can do back here is, for every person to get back of the Red Cross as a member. This cause is organized patriotism which will bring results.

Charles Oswald, efficiency expert in charge of the accounting plans for the lake division, stated that the quota for Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky was 1,600,000 members and Fort Wayne was assigned a quota of 25,000 for Allen county. Arrangements are being made throughout Fort Wayne and all over Allen county, that at 7:30 on Christmas eve lighted candles will be placed behind Red Cross service flags in every home, and at the same hour the church bells of the city and communities will chime the announcement of the hour, that Allen county has linked the Christmas spirit with the Red Cross of humanity by completing its quota of membership.

WORKSHOP NOTES

The workshop will close all day Thanksgiving. IN THE CHURCHES

HOUSE TO HOUSE CANVASS IS MADE

In Interest of Evangelistic Campaign at Crescent Avenue Church.

Monday afternoon was spent by the Barr evangelistic party together with the pastor's wife in a house-to-house canvass of Lakeside. The members of the party hope in these weeks of the campaign to come in personal touch with every resident of the community. A telegram was received Monday stating that Mrs. Barr was on her way from Hattiesburg and as soon as she arrives a drastic campaign will be begun for the awakening of this part of Fort Wayne.

Miss Mason gave the message Monday evening from the text, "As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have eternal life." She said in substance: "The serpent was lifted up for any person actually bitten by serpent. Jesus came not to call the righteous but sinners to repentance. For those bitten by sin, Jesus Christ is lifted up—for you who are playing with sin—for you who have warmed it in your bosom—for for you who have been mortally wounded by sin—there is no case too hard for the Son of God. The wages of the serpent was death. There was no limit to the stage of poisoning. However, far gone, the remedy was found. The promise had no qualifying clause. The remedy provided was of divine origin. There was no human remedy for the bite of the serpent. The remedy provided looked unlikely—just to look at a figure on a pole, but what God orders He puts potency in. We do not need to know how it works. The remedy was an enduring one. Had it been made of wood or any other material, it might have been broken or decayed, but a serpent of brass would last as long as the fiery serpents. As long as there was a man to heal, there was a serpent of brass. The brazen serpent might have been carried into the home of the sufferer, he might have had to have a priest to perform some ceremony—some prayers might have had to be offered, but all he was was commanded to do was to look. It was a personal cure. If he had been bitten and refused to look no one could look for him. If you look at Christ believe in Him, you will be saved—if you refuse to look, you will be lost. There is nothing in Christ's death to save you unless you trust in Him. The sufferer was healed at once—it did not take an hour or a day—the cure was immediate. Pardon comes like a flash of lightning. There was no one in the camp that looked who died. There is not a sinner who comes to Christ who remains under condemnation."

The bookkeeper, Antonio Cornes, 56, has been with the company forty years and for years has made daily trips to the bank with the preceding day's receipts. He was attacked one block from the brewery office at 11:10 o'clock while on his way to catch a car to take money for deposit in the bank. Two of the bandits slugged him with blizzies and the others battered his head with beer bottles until he fell unconscious. ARE USING SHORT WEIGHT SCALES

City Sealer Tolan Discovers and Confiscates Five Weighing Machines.

City Sealer Tolan put in a good day's work Tuesday on the Barr street market by confiscating five short-weight scales. A total of $3.60 was ordered rebated to purchasers whom the city sealer was able to find after the discovery of the short-weight scales. The owners of the scales offered no protest when told that they would have to refund to their customers, most of them preferring this procedure to a jail sentence.

One of the confiscated scales was found to register fifteen pounds when it should have read twelve and one-half pounds. As the purchase was a turkey it can readily be seen that the difference amounted to a considerable sum. Sealer Tolan states that the only way to break up any chances of short weight, accidental or otherwise, is to bring any article that the purchaser thinks is short in weight to him to be weighed.

Price-fixers at Work. The unknown price-fixing expert was a little late Tuesday morning and one farmer suffered considerable embarrassment through his carelessness. When the price of turkey was asked the farmer responded: "Well, we haven't been given the price yet, but I think it will be 35 cents a pound dressed." Upon his arrival the price-fixer evidently found things unsatisfactory, for undressed turkey immediately rose from 25 to 28 cents a pound.

LADIES ARE OUT OF JAIL

Suffragettes Are Suddenly Released from Washington Bastille.

TWENTY-TWO ARE ALLOWED LIBERTY

Some Mystery Surrounds Release of Ladies, Who Had Many Days.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Twenty-two woman's party militants hunger-striking in the District of Columbia jail here were suddenly released today long before the expiration of their terms. Among them were Alice Paul, chairman of the party, and Lucy Burns, vice-chairman.

Woman's party headquarters exultantly announced that the jail officials "had gotten enough" of the first American hunger-strike. In a procession of taxicabs the heroine militants, some of them showing the rigors of enforced feeding and willful starvation, were taken in a triumphant procession to the headquarters.

It developed that the women were released on the order of one of the police court judges who summarily reduced all their sentences to expire today. What higher official ordered his action was not disclosed.

Jail officials could not be found to explain the release of the women long in advance of the expiration of their terms, some of which ran as long as seven months. Other attempts to get explanations through the local government were fruitless despite assurances some time ago that proper inquiries about the women at the jail would be answered by the proper authorities. In the absence of officials in charge it was not possible to determine who ordered their release. Most of the militants have been at the jail since Federal Judge Waddill ordered their removal from the workhouse at Occoquan, Va. Through their headquarters the women have issued revolting accounts of the forced feeding and while in the Virginia workhouse charged gross cruelties. All were serving sentences for picketing the white house.

Tobacco Habit Easily Overcome
A New Yorker, of wide experience, has written a book telling how the tobacco or snuff habit may be easily and quickly banished with a light touch. The author, Edward J. Woods, 1312 K, Station E, New York City, will mail his book free on request.
The health improves wonderfully after tobacco craving is conquered. Calmness, tranquil sleep, clear eyes, normal appetite, good digestion, manly vigor, strong memory and a general gain in efficiency are among the many benefits reported. Get rid of that nervous, irritable feeling; no more need of pipe, cigar, cigarette, snuff or chewing tobacco to pacify morbid desire.—Advertisement.

Just now, in addition to the many reasons prevailing in ordinary times, there are numerous special reasons why the women who buy food and other supplies for the family should not let a day pass without a careful reading of every page of the Evening Sentinel.
Skip nothing. Read the news columns, editorials, selected women's features, the market page, store news of Fort Wayne merchants, want-ads—everything—as all hold money-saving suggestions.

strain better than any man on the team, can be depended on at fullback. Neal, O. Thompson and Haigis are the mainstays in the line.

Immediately after this last contest, Coach Townsend will take hold of the basketball men, who until now have been working out in the armory under the direction of Captain Hunt. Between twenty-five and thirty candidates for places on the quintet are out. Not only the number of men, but also the quality of the material gives rise to the hope of a winning combination in spite of the fact that not a member of last year's team remains about whom to begin the building of another five.

The new gym is rapidly nearing completion and there is no doubt that it will be completed in time to hold at least several of the home games on the Scarlet schedule. The work is being rushed as it is the hope of every one that some of the bigger games, those with Notre Dame, Indiana or Purdue, can be played on the new floor.

DANCE TO BE GIVEN FOR SOLDIER BOYS

Members of Camp Taylor Team to be Guests of the Mooseheart.

An invitation has been sent to members of the Camp Taylor football team who will play the fast Kendallville Overlands here Thursday afternoon to attend a dance to be given in their Thanksgiving eve by Mooseheart Legion at the Moose hall at Wayne and Webster streets.

The proceeds from the dance will go to a charity fund to provide Christmas treats for the poor and needy of Fort Wayne.

Tickets for the big game Thursday afternoon are now on sale. A good game is assured. The Kendallville Overlands have not been scored upon this season, as the following record will show:

Elkhart, Sept. 23.—7 to 0; Fort Wayne Bachelors, Sept. 30.—13 to 0; Fort Wayne Tigers, Oct. 7.—32 to 0; details.

Corby Hall, Notre Dame, Oct. 21.—0 to 0; Portland, Oct. 28.—23 to 0; Goshen, strengthened by a number of Notre Dame players, as a result of which some were discharged from the university and six others barred from future athletics, played on Nov. 4, and was beaten 25 to 0. On Nov. 11 the Fort Wayne Bachelors, strengthened, it is said, by a number of ex-Frars, clashed with the Overlands for the second time this year and went home with the short end of a 30 to 0 score.

ONE MORE SCRAP ON WABASH CARD

Little Giants Play Marquette Eleven at Milwaukee Thursday.

Crowfordville, Ind., Nov. 27.—The curtain drops over the Little Giant football season Thursday when Coach Townsend and his men go to Milwaukee to give battle to the Marquette university aggregation. The fact that Wabash has met with defeat in all but two games this season, and has held to fight odds continually has stimulated rather than diminished the spirit of the team.

SPORT CHATTER

(Dan Johnson is in favor of asking the government to exempt some 280 ball players from war service.)

BIG BAN'S LAMENT.

General, spare these men
Save me two-eighty-four
Please do, not ask again
To haul them off to war.
They've made me lots of dough
And there's plenty more to come
O, please don't make 'em go
I need 'em every one.

Think of my salary
Before you turn me down
It means more dough to me
If they just hang around.
I love each hardened phiz.
They work so hard, you know.
I need 'em in my biz.
Oh, please don't make 'em go.

You know I asked you to
To take me away to France
My belt line wouldn't do
I didn't have a chance.
But now I'm asking you
To hear my tale of woe.
Whatever else you do—
Please do not make them go.

JUST LIKE SUICIDE.

The ski season will open shortly. And still there are some who talk of the horrors of war.

Yussif Hussain, wrestling in this country, advertises himself as the champion of Bulgaria. He hate to think what would become of a guy in Sofia who would advertise himself as the champion of the United States.

Billiard players want to collect a fund of $1,000,000 for patriotic purposes. This is almost as hard a task as though the rascals tried to collect a fund of 48 cents.

IT AIN'T ENOUGH.

Mike Gibbons and Mackey McFarland are to box for the Sammlies according to a rumor. We doubt it. How are 2,000,000 Sammlies at $30 a month going to raise the guarantee?

Ran Johnson would have Uncle Sam exempt 288 ball players. Ban's diplomacy is entirely too open. He should have them appointed baseball instructors in army camps.

Now that Gen. Byng has licked the Huns why not call on Gen. Zowie, Gen. Zam and Swatum to finish up the job?

RABBIT VS. CUPID.

Rabbit Maranville will play football with a navy team. If he ever tackles Cupid, Black and Cupid finds it out there may be trouble.

A fellow named Devers has been suspended by the Wisconsin boxing commission for laying down in a bout with Fred Fulton. Anyone who would lay down in a fight with Fulton ought to be shot at sunrise.

After reading the scores piled up by Georgia Tech several members of the Pittsburg team decided to get tonsillitis.

OR CROQUET MAYBE.

Cornell has accused Rutgers of using rough tactics in a football game. What did Cornell think it was getting into, anyway, a game of tiddie-dinkies?

Ted Lewis has been boxing on the coast and has shown his patriotism by paying 3 cents postage on two letters which he did not have to write.

"Western league may quit," says a headline. The Western league has been quitting every winter since eighteen empty-six. Some day they may fool us and do it.

BLIND NECESSARY IN DUCK HUNTING; ACKERMAN TELLS HOW TO BUILD ONE

BY MORRIS ACKERMAN.

(From Hunter and Trapper.)

To the duck hunter blind building is not a mystery, but the beginner is likely to find it so.

The novice can construct a "duck blind," as well as the most experienced. Fact is most anyone can rig up some kind of a hide that may fool a duck—but if you have not mastered the art the amateur "blind" may not answer.

The smaller the blind and the closer it lays to the ground the better your chances for fooling the ever suspicious wild duck.

The material used in blind building, as well as the manner in which it is constructed is of importance. This is especially true in that material used in one part of the country may not be found in another.

In addition to using as little material as possible on the blind the next thing of importance is to make one that does not contrast much with the surroundings.

If you are building in a marsh use marsh grass to cover your sticks. If the foliage is green where you are hunting use green leaves over your frame-work. If the blind is built near a leafless wood use a bit of dead wood and cover with dead leaves and brush.

If a blind is built in the water cover up both ends of your boat with brush or grass, building the part that conceals the hunters just high enough from the water to be able to "peep" over when sitting in the bottom of the boat.

The clothes one wears duck hunting are important. Keep your head down and sit tight. Don't go "over the top" with a black cap on a green brown blind frontage. If the snow is laying heavy on the top "ridge" of your blind take a white handkerchief and cover up your hunting cap with it.

To be a successful hunter for ducks or any other kind of game is an Indian. To be an Indian you must look at things from the angle of the thing that is being pursued rather than your own.

If there is to be no lapse of rent-in-come there must be no delay in your classified advertising campaign

SUBURBAN DAY
WEDNESDAY

What Would We Do Without Christmas?

What could we substitute that would so mellow our natures and so warm the cockles of our hearts? Let us be glad there is such a holiday as Christmas. Let us be glad of the opportunity it gives to display a generous and friendly spirit. Let cheery faces and glad greetings make this the best Christmas of all. Christmas is essentially the children's holiday—little eyes are brightening already in expectation. "Santa Claus writes us that he is coming around just as usual in spite of the war and the work he has had to do for the soldiers and sailors and the little orphan children in Belgium, France and those other places where the terrible war is being fought."

Many of our soldiers and sailors were children only a little while ago. Now they are in training camps and across the ocean, a gift from "back home" will make them happier and more comfortable. Let nothing be too good for our boys.

This Christmas has its problems but they will be met in the spirit that finds joy in contributing to the happiness of others.

John Philip Sousa Snips Off Beard

We always thought temperance lived in whiskers—but it appears not. John Philip Sousa has shaved his off—the whiskers, not the temperance.

The famous band leader is shown here, before and after taking his snippers and razor in hand.

That's a figure of course. Chances are that some barber did it.

Looks stern and generalissimo-like, doesn't he? Well, he's leading a United States army band now, y'know.

PATRIOTIC MEETINGS

ALL OVER THE STATE

Gospel of Americanism to be Thoroughly Spread in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Nov. 26.—Three thousand patriotic meetings in Indiana in the coming year, under the direction of the state council of defense speakers' bureau, working with the bureau of the national council of defense and with the state schools of Indiana, will help spread the gospel of Americanism and the war service creed of loyalty.

More than 300 speakers are on the rolls of the speakers' bureau and are being directed by J. J. Pettibone and his forces at the headquarters of the state council of defense. The Indiana speakers' bureau for educational work in the war has been copied by the national council of defense, and Indiana has been chosen as the field in which to give the national bureau its first tryout.

Captain Paul Perigord of the French army, who has spent two years and a half in the trenches, and who is in this country as one of the 150 French military instructors assisting in training American soldiers, was engaged to tour the state of Indiana for a week, speaking at Evansville, Terre Haute, Lafayette, Fort Wayne, South Bend, Indianapolis and elsewhere on a schedule arranged for the national council's bureau by the Indiana bureau.

Plans now are being worked out for financing the larger speaking campaign, and conferences of speakers, or schools of patriotic oratory will be held. The speakers' bureau expects to establish a library department where material for the speakers can be compiled and briefed. The educational campaign of speeches is to be co-ordinated as to the material used, and war truths are to be driven home in every community. The need for this sort of activity is emphasized as the work of the pro-German propagandists rises on all sides to confront defense workers. The more active the pro-German secret agencies become the more necessary is the work done through the publicity and speakers' bureaus of the state council of defense.

Eight hundred and forty-seven high schools in Indiana with 200 school superintendents endorsing the plan, are to be made centers of rational patriotism in the state, and meetings are to be arranged in these schools, in the churches, in moving picture theatres under the four-minute plan as well as in district schools and other centers.

The demand for speakers already is large and calls steadily increase in frequency and number. Speakers are called for in connection with various campaigns for funds, for organization work, for patriotic rallies and for purposes of instruction and enlightenment on this or that phase of war work. It is the purpose to have on call speakers who are prepared to discuss any war subject or meet any special demand for specific discussion. One community may seek speakers for purely patriotic demonstrations. Another may have reached the stage where the call is for direct facts as to what is being done and what must be done as Indiana's part of the work that is to help win the war.

Funds, facts, speakers and direction for the greatest drive ever projected by any speakers' bureau in the state are in course of preparation. It is understood the big speaking campaign will cost about $33,000, and of this amount Indiana university offers to stand $11,000, a similar sum being provided by the state council of defense, $3,700 from the State Normal, $2,000 from the League to Enforce Peace, $2,000 from the National Security league.

BOOM TIMES FOR THE MINERS OF KENTUCKY

Highest Wages Ever Known
Are Now Paid and All
Are Busy.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Nov. 26.—Miners in the coal fields of Western Kentucky are more fully supplied with labor, are getting a better car supply and are producing more coal than ever before in the history of this district. The first of these conditions is due to the fact that wages are now being paid that in normal times were unheard of, and which even at this time loom large. So greatly have miners' earnings grown, that men have been drawn from other occupations all over this section and from cities and towns in other states.

The high wages, although bringing more men to the mine had not exerted their full effect until recently when the penalty clause which the federal fuel administration insisted be incorporated in miners' contracts, became effective. Previously men were able to earn such large wages, that they were satisfied to work only three days each week and to remain idle the rest of the time. Now the miners must work not less than five days each week or pay a penalty for each day that he fails to work.

The result is that men are drawn to the mines by big wages and then are compelled to work "full time" in order to realize those wages. The production, therefore has jumped to the point where it closely approaches in many mines the highest rated capacity.

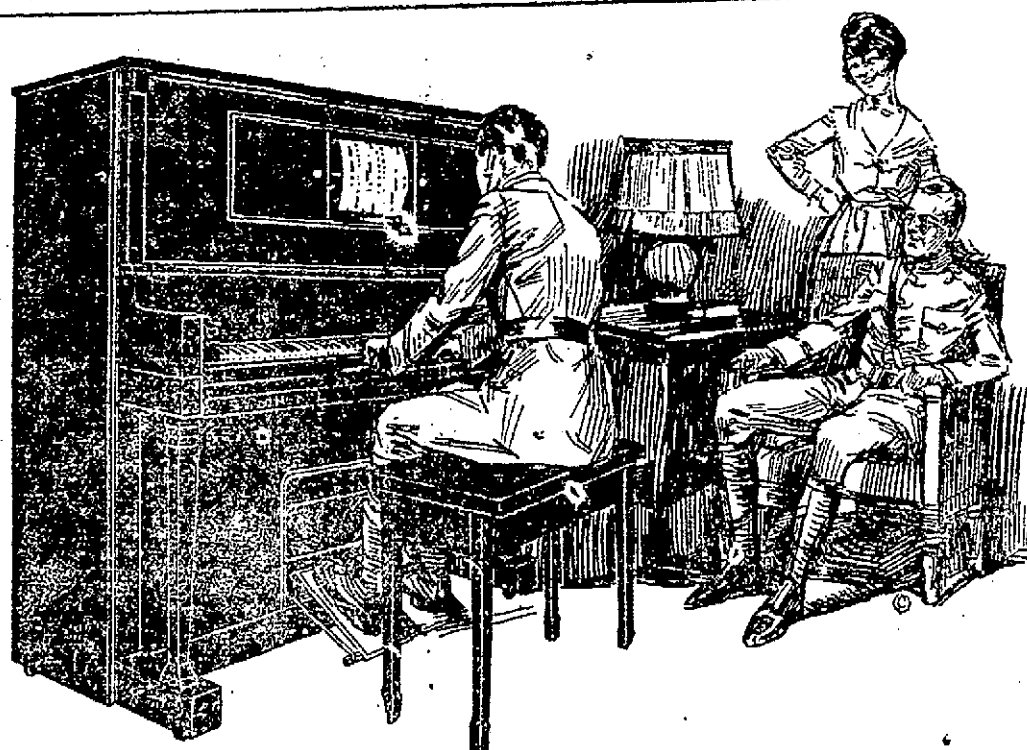

An illustration of what wages men about the mines are now being paid is given by the following rates of pay quoted in an advertisement recently published in several newspapers in this section. Among the offers were the following:

Boys to drive mules, $4; track layers, $4.25; track layer helpers, $3.75; and piece work wage scales for loaders and machine runners making possible daily earnings of from seven to eight dollars a day and even three or four dollars above that amount. The minimum wage inside the mine paid by the company publishing the advertisement is for day labor at $3.75.

It is not uncommon to find a mine superintendent in this district working on salary, under a contract entered into two or three years ago, who is getting much less than miners whose labor he directs.

The railroad car shortage, a bugaboo of the mine operator within recent months, seems to have been relieved. Reports are that mines generally are getting sufficient cars to permit them being worked to capacity. Operators say, however, that even

Ninety bushels of oats to the acre is the record made this year by Carl Vrooman, assistant secretary of agriculture, on one of his farms at Chenoa, Ill. The average for all the oats harvested on the Vrooman farms this year was seventy-three bushels an acre. The average production of oats an acre for Illinois for the last ten years is thirty-three bushels. The fact that Mr. Vrooman was able to more than double this average on his entire acreage and almost to triple it on one field, it is pointed out, is proof of the efficiency of the methods recommended by the department of agriculture.

THREE-DECKER BARGE TO TRANSPORT SHEEP

Ingenious Method to Get Big Flocks to Winter Grazing Lands.

Washington, Nov. 26.—By the use of a three-decker barge capable of carrying 2,700 sheep at a time, hitherto unused range for approximately 75,000 sheep at the head of Lake Chelan, on the Chelan national forest, Washington, has been made available for use.

This, according to grazing experts of the forest service, is an example of the way in which new range on the national forests is being opened up in an effort to increase the country's meat supply.

Lake Chelan, which, officers of the forest service say, is one of the most beautiful bodies of water in the west, is 52 miles long. While the head of the lake is accessible only by boat and narrow mountain trails, the lower end is convenient to a railroad and also to the bunchgrass ranges of eastern Washington upon which the sheep men of that region have for many years wintered large numbers of sheep.

They lacked summer range, however. The summer range at the head of Lake Chelan, it is explained, is particularly good but is cut off from the nearest ranches by a long stretch of exceedingly rough country over which sheep cannot be driven without severe losses.

Officers of the forest service suggested the construction of a barge to be towed by a small steamer, which would make it possible to transport the sheep to the head of the lake. The suggestion was carried out with the aid of the railroad, and 37,000 sheep were put on this practically new range the first season.

Not only was the national forest land utilized, but the route up to the lake offers a satisfactory way to a large adjoining area in British Columbia which, though inaccessible from the Canadian side may now be reached from this side.

The plan was so successful that the

tinues and Berlin and Petrograd are reported in communication by wireless, presumably in connection with the peace offer of the Maximilians. The second army on the Russian northern front has removed its officers, agreed to the Bolshevik armistice proposal and pledged its support to the extremists.

The American government has received the armistice note from the Petrograd government and it is under consideration. The ministers of the allied powers in the Russian capital, it is reported, unofficially, will demand their passports if Russia enters into separate peace negotiations.

Gen. Kaledines, the Don Cossack leader, in a dispatch received in London, says, is master of the situation in Russia. He is in control of most of the grain growing territory in the south and is said to hold the Russian gold reserve, reported removed from Petrograd a year before the war began. The Russian soldiers at the front are reported desperate from hunger, due to the exhaustion of food supplies, and mutinies are said to have broken out.

question can arise which cannot be determined substantially as questions between the various states or provinces are determined, at Washington or Ottawa.

"As regards some nations I question whether as yet we can trust the future solely to even the most carefully devised treaties—lest in any real emergency we suddenly discover that they are regarded merely as scraps of paper. Therefore, on the general matter of securing lasting international peace, I feel that probably our action ought to be two-fold. We ought, with entire sincerity, to take every step which makes it likely that thereby the chances of future war will be minimized. But we should treat this action as an addition to, and not as a substitute for, preparing in advance to guard our safety by our trained strength. Let us in good faith enter into all reasonable treaties which will render it less likely in the future that the peace of the world will be broken. But let us not trust too much to paper guarantees.

"Let us, ourselves, make no agreements we cannot keep, and observe every agreement into which we enter. In addition, let us, as a matter of permanent policy, keep our strength prepared for our own defense. In order to do this, let us insist that every right enjoyed shall carry with it the obligation to perform the corresponding duty. Inasmuch as the first duty of a nation is self-defense, let us insist that in our democratic universal suffrage shall go hand in hand with universal service, and therefore with obligatory universal training of our young men in time of peace so that they may be fit and ready to defend the hearthstones of the nation in time of war."

Colonel Roosevelt declared that what had been accomplished by the Canadians and by their sister colonies was without a parallel in history.

"You and they," he said, "have sent your valiant sons in hundreds of thousands across the vast oceans to fight on fields of ancient fame which their deeds have rendered still more famous. It has been a proof of the vision, of the power to look ahead and to sacrifice present ease for large future interests, which is possessed only by peoples that are mighty of soul. You have made your bodies the servants of your souls' desire.

"I did not accept any invitation to speak formally in Canada until the entry of my own beloved country into the war gave me the right to come here with pride, as an equal speaking to equals; for now, friends, your countrymen and mine have a common duty and the same single purpose. The duty incumbent on both of our nations is to fight this war through to a finish, no matter how long it takes and at no matter what cost of life and treasure, until we win the peace of overwhelming victory. Our common purpose is to break the offensive strength of the Prussianized Germany of the Hohenzollerns, so as to redeem Belgium and secure ample atonement for her wrongs, so as to restore to France what Germany took from her, so as to free every people now tyrannized over by Germany or her vassal allies, Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria. When the world is safe for orderly freedom, for all the people, great or small, who live justly under the governments of their choice, then, and not until then, our purpose in this war will have been achieved. Then, when peace comes, we must endeavor to make it lasting; and in order that we may be even measurably successful in this endeavor, we must show both sincere desire to realize an ideal and also sound common sense in the course we follow to that end."

Rest Rooms for Women and Children Are Appreciated by Visitors.

The establishment of a public rest room for the women and children who come to the city on the regular Wednesday Suburban shopping trip is appreciated by many who are strangers in the city. For the information of all who may not be informed, it should be known that the conveniences and comforts of the women's rest room on the main floor of the court house are free to all, especially to those who come from other towns and the farming districts. The rest room is maintained by the county and the wisdom of the plan is shown especially on Suburban day when hundreds who are strangers to the city are glad to find a place for rest until the time for the return trip. Many of the stores also are equipped with rest rooms and waiting rooms for the convenience of visitors.

Tomorrow, if the weather is good will find an exceptionally large crowd in town because of the natural growth of the popularity of the Suburban shopping day idea, and also because of the close approach of the holidays.

Many are finding it convenient to trade on Wednesday when the crowds of Fort Wayne people are not so large as they are on Saturday. The columns of The Sentinel today present a bewildering array of splendid Suburban day "specials" for the benefit of out of town shoppers.

CONDUCTOR'S APPAREL APPEALED TO GEORGE

Conductor's Uniform Hat Looked Like Own, Therefore Mistake, Says Negro.

George Lovell, a colored boy from Detroit, was arrested on a larceny charge Monday evening. Lovell with some more negroes came to Fort Wayne over the Wabash. Upon his arrival here Lovell picked up a coat, overcoat and hat belonging to Conductor Albert Holtz. Tuesday morning he tried to tell Judge Kerr that he picked up the articles through mistake in the hurry of dismounting. His story was too weak, however, and he consequently drew $10 and costs and ninety days on the state farm.

Police Notes. Dan Huntington and John Mitchell, drunks, were ordered discharged. Robert Boyne, who has been a countless number of times in police court on drunk charges, was given $5 and costs. Harvey Slater, arrested on a loitering charge, testified in a rather aimless manner and was given until December 1, to get collected. The case against Roy Pollack was continued until November 27.

Sent to Bucyrus. Charles Sullivan, alias Ward Bowers, was sent back to Bucyrus to answer a forgery charge. The boy was an inmate of the Mansfield, O., reformatory. His identification was directly due to Detective Sergeant Brennan's Bertillon system.

fighting through the streets. The battle continued here today.

The fight for Bourlon wood and village will long be remembered as one of the most bitterly contested and sanguinary yet fought along the British front in France. American officers visiting the Canadian sector have been thrilled at this renewal of old-time warfare and with one accord say: "That's the kind of fighting American troops would like to be in, for you are in the open where you can get at the enemy with cold steel."

The British have clung tenaciously to Bourlon wood, defended partly by tanks which have taken positions at advantageous locations from which they can work their guns. Fontaine Notre Dame was being hard pressed by the British at latest reports. Throughout yesterday this hamlet remained unmolested for it in no way hampered the operations about Bourlon wood.

In a certain British casualty clearing station on the Cambrai front there has been working for several days a well known New York surgeon who belongs to the American medical corps and volunteered his service for the present battle. Most of his work has been done among the German prisoners who have come to look upon this big, cheerful officer as almost superhuman because of several remarkable operations he has performed.

The Germans all swear by the "big American" and treat his with the utmost deference. It fell to the lot of this surgeon to operate upon a German who had left the Russian front only 36 hours before. He was among the reinforcements rushed from the east. It took him 24 hours to get into the battle before Cambrai and twelve hours later he was a prisoner in a British clearing station.

GERMAN ATTACK REPULSED.

London, Nov. 27.—British troops have repulsed another German counter-attack at the northeast corner of Bourlon wood, west of Cambrai, according to an official report today from Field Marshal Haig.

The announcement follows: "During the night the Germans undertook another counter-attack against our position in the northeast corner of Bourlon wood. The attack was repulsed.

"There is nothing of special interest to report on the remainder of the front. The weather is stormy and wet."

COLUMBIA CITY MAN SUDDENLY DISAPPEARS

Frank Smith Last Seen Saturday Evening at 6:40 O'clock.

(Special to The Sentinel.) Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 27.—Frank Smith, a well known young man of this city, has mysteriously disappeared from his home. He was seen last at 6:40 o'clock Saturday evening and whether he has committed suicide or has left for parts unknown is causing his relatives and friends no little concern.

Smith came to Columbia City about a year ago from a farm southeast of here and started a garage. He sold the garage three weeks ago and since that time has been employed at the Ford agency. Last Saturday he took a day off to collect some bills due him. His wife had spent the day in the country. He was seen at 6:40 o'clock Saturday evening, but after that hour no trace of him can be found.

Smith had worried some because of a number of debts which he owed. His indebtedness, however, was not great and he could easily have taken care of them. He has a brother living in St. Cloud, Florida, and it may be that he is on his way to that city.

SOME LEADING ISSUES SHOW EARLY STRENGTH

Coppers, Motors and Equipments Have Good Opening in Market.

New York, Nov. 27.—Coppers, motor and equipments were the outstanding features of today's early dealings on the stock exchange, such issues as American Smelting, Baldwin Locomotive, Crumble, Steel, General Motors and Studebaker recording gains of one to two points. Tobacco, Shipings and minor specialties also hardened substantially but rails manifested further irregularity. Liberty bonds were virtually unchanged.

Rails became distinctly heavy soon after the opening, suggesting a renewal of liquidation in that quarter. Equipments shipings and tobacco forfeited much of their early advantage with motors, but a few specialties, notably leather and paper, responded to the activity of the market.

LOCAL MARKETS

TUESDAY IS BIG

HAY DAY AT SCALES

Prices Continue to Fall, But Local Dealers Think Decline Will Stop.

Tuesday proved to be another record day for hay. Thirty-three loads reached the city scales but 22 were baled and were shipped directly to the government for use in the army cantonments. The prices continued to fall and the bottom price dropped down to $19 a ton. Local dealers predict that the prices will not fall lower. Seven loads of new corn brought $1.95@1.10 a bushel. This price has remained the same for the past week. Oats advanced slightly over the prices paid Monday. Three loads of oats reached the market. The price on oats was also raised at the mills.
